IN ASSEMBLY

May 25, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. SANTABARBARA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to establishing a college experience program for students with developmental disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 355 of the education law is amended by adding a new
2 subdivision 20 to read as follows:

3 20. a. No later than one year from the effective date of this subdivi-
4 sion, the state university trustees shall adopt regulations to establish 5 a two-year college experience program for students with developmental 6 disabilities at each state university of New York institution. Each 7 such institution shall offer such program to eligible students in 8 accordance with the regulations prescribed by the state university trus-
9 tees.

10 b. Such program shall consist of:

11 (1) an academic component related to preparing eligible students for 12 practical living and employment and shall include coursework related to 13 such purposes including, but not limited to, courses in cooking,
14 personal finance, health and wellness, interpersonal communications, and 15 internships; and

16 (2) a housing component related to preparing eligible students for
17 independent living and shall include housing of eligible students in 18 institution-provided housing.

19 c. To be eligible to enroll in a college experience program, a student 20 shall:

21 (1) submit to the institution documentation, as determined by the 22 state university trustees, regarding his or her developmental disability 23 and his or her ability to live independently; and

24 (2) demonstrate to the institution a level of academic proficiency, as 25 determined by the state university trustees.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 d. An eligible student may pay for such program through his or her
2 home and community based waiver administered by the office for people
3 with developmental disabilities and/or supplemental security income
4 (SSI) benefits under the federal social security act or through private 5 funding.

6 e. In developing the college experience program described in this
7 subdivision, the state university trustees shall consult with the office
8 for people with developmental disabilities.

9 § 2. Section 6206 of the education law is amended by adding a new 10 subdivision 20 to read as follows:

11 20. a. No later than one year from the effective date of this subdivi-
12 sion, the city university trustees shall adopt regulations to establish 13 a two-year college experience program for students with developmental 14 disabilities at each city university of New York institution. Each such 15 institution shall offer such program to eligible students in accordance 16 with the regulations prescribed by the city university trustees.

17 b. Such program shall consist of:

18 (1) an academic component related to preparing eligible students for 19 practical living and employment and shall include coursework related to 20 such purposes including, but not limited to, courses in cooking,
21 personal finance, health and wellness, interpersonal communications, and
22 internships; and

23 (2) a housing component related to preparing eligible students for 24 independent living and shall include housing of eligible students in 25 institution-provided housing.

26 c. To be eligible to enroll in a college experience program, a student 27 shall:

28 (1) submit to the institution documentation, as determined by the city 29 university trustees, regarding his or her developmental disability and 30 his or her ability to live independently; and

31 (2) demonstrate to the institution a level of academic proficiency, as 32 determined by the city university trustees.

33 d. An eligible student may pay for such program through his or her
34 home and community based waiver administered by the office for people
35 with developmental disabilities and/or supplemental security income
36 (SSI) benefits under the federal social security act or through private 37 funding.

38 e. In developing the college experience program described in this 39 subdivision, the city university trustees shall consult with the office
40 for people with developmental disabilities.

41 § 3. Section 6303 of the education law is amended by adding a new
42 subdivision 6 to read as follows:

43 6. a. No later than one year from the effective date of this subdivi-
44 sion, the state university trustees shall adopt regulations to establish 45 a two-year college experience program for students with developmental 46 disabilities at each community college. Each community college shall 47 offer such program to eligible students in accordance with the regu-
48 lations prescribed by the state university trustees.

49 b. Such program shall consist of:

50 (i) an academic component related to preparing eligible students for 51 practical living and employment and shall include coursework related to 52 such purposes including, but not limited to, courses in cooking,
53 personal finance, health and wellness, interpersonal communications, and 54 internships; and

1 (ii) a housing component related to preparing eligible students for
2 independent living and shall include housing of eligible students in 3 community college-provided housing.

4 c. To be eligible to enroll in a college experience program, a student 5 shall:

6 (i) submit to the community college documentation, as determined by 7 the state university trustees, regarding his or her developmental disa-8 bility and his or her ability to live independently; and

9 (ii) demonstrate to the community college a level of academic profi-
10 ciency, as determined by the state university trustees.

11 d. An eligible student may pay for such program through his or her
12 home and community based waiver administered by the office for people
13 with developmental disabilities and/or supplemental security income
14 (SSI) benefits under the federal social security act or through private 15 funding.

16 e. In developing the college experience program described in this
17 subdivision, the state university trustees shall consult with the office
18 for people with developmental disabilities.

19 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 20 it shall have become a law.
