AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to the maximum amount that certain members of the New York state and local employees' retirement system and the New York state and local police and fire retirement system may borrow against retirement contributions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1. Section 1. Subdivision b of section 517-c of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 18 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

   b. A member of the New York state and local employees' retirement system, the New York state and local police and fire retirement system, the New York city employees' retirement system or the New York city board of education retirement system in active service who has credit for at least one year of member service may borrow, no more than once during each twelve month period, an amount not exceeding seventy-five percent of the total contributions made pursuant to section five hundred seventeen of this article (including interest credited at the rate set forth in subdivision c of such section five hundred seventeen compounded annually) and not less than one thousand dollars, provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to a New York city uniformed correction/sanitation revised plan member or an investigator revised plan member.

2. A member of the New York state and local employees' retirement system who first joins such system on or after January first, two thousand eighteen in active service who has credit for at least one year of member service may borrow, no more than once during each twelve month period, an amount, not less than one thousand dollars and which would not cause the balance owed pursuant to this section, including any amounts borrowed then outstanding, to exceed (i) fifty percent of the member's total contributions made pursuant to section five hundred seventeen of this article (including interest credited at the rate set forth in subdivision c of such section five hundred seventeen compounded annually); or (ii) fifty thousand dollars, whichever is less.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:
This bill would limit the member loan amounts of those who first become members of the New York State and Local Employees Retirement System (ERS) or the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System (PFRS) on or after January 1, 2018. The loan amount, including any amounts borrowed then outstanding, may not exceed the lesser of 50% of the member contribution balance and $50,000.
If this bill is enacted, we estimate that there would be a small initial administrative cost to the system to revise publications and member loan processes.
