IN ASSEMBLY

June 1, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. RYAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Small Business

AN ACT to amend the economic development law, in relation to establishing an advisory panel on employee-owned enterprises; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The economic development law is amended by adding a new 2 section 139 to read as follows:
- § 139. Advisory panel on employee-owned enterprises. 1. Definition. 4 As used in this section, the term "employee-owned enterprise" shall mean a business in which the employees control the majority of the voting stock, or if the business is held in a trust which controls the majority of the voting stock, the trustees are elected by the employees. The term "employee-owned enterprise" shall also refer to a worker cooperative as defined in section eighty-one of the cooperative corporations law.
- 10 2. Establishment of advisory panel. An advisory panel is hereby 11 created within the department for the purpose of reviewing state laws 12 and programs in order to report and make recommendations on how best to 13 support existing employee-owned enterprises, promoting the formation of 14 new employee-owned enterprises, and promoting the continued growth of such businesses in the state. 15
- 3. Composition of advisory panel. (a) The advisory panel shall consist 16 of twelve members, including: 17
- (i) the commissioner, or his or her designee, who shall be designated 18 19 as chair of the advisory panel;
- 20 (ii) the commissioner of labor, or his or her designee;

- (b) Each member of the panel shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority, and any vacancy on the panel shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Such panel members shall serve without compensation except that such members shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in such service.
  - 4. Powers and duties of the advisory panel. The advisory panel shall:
- (a) identify and recommend strategies to promote the creation and development of new employee-owned enterprises in order to create new jobs and retain existing jobs within the state;
- (b) identify and recommend strategies to facilitate the creation of employee-owned enterprises that promote the continuation of existing businesses either as part of a pre-existing business succession of ownership plan or as an alternative option if a business is being offered for sale or transfer by the current owner or the heirs or estate of a deceased owner;
- (c) evaluate the effectiveness of current state and local training and assistance programs designed to provide support to employee-owned enterprises, and make recommendations as to how to more effectively utilize these programs and resources to support such enterprises;
- (d) examine and identify state and local laws and regulations relating to the governance and administration of employee-owned enterprises and their effect on the creation, retention, and growth of such enterprises;
- (e) examine and identify other successful federal, state and local programs designed to provide support to employee-owned enterprises, including any programs currently underutilized by individuals seeking to establish an employee-owned enterprise in the state;
- 44 (f) evaluate the ability of new and existing employee-owned enter-
  45 prises to acquire the capital necessary to form, expand, and develop
  46 their operations;
  - (g) evaluate the role of immigrants and new Americans, minorities, women, and veterans in the formation of employee-owned enterprises;
- 49 (h) evaluate the potential for employee-owned enterprises to assist in
  50 the revitalization and redevelopment of economically disadvantaged
  51 communities; and
- 52 (i) recommend a set of best practices and policies as a guide for
  53 individuals to use when forming an employee-owned enterprise, and make
  54 such guide publicly available on the department's website.
- 55 5. Reporting. The advisory panel shall issue a report no later than 56 September thirtieth, two thousand eighteen outlining the findings and
