AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, the public authorities law and the state finance law, in relation to liability of design professionals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new section 103-h to read as follows:

§ 103-h. Design professional liability. 1. For purposes of the section, the term "design professional" shall mean:

a. An individual licensed pursuant to articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law; or

b. Any corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other business entity legally authorized to practice any of the professions regulated by articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law.

2. Any defense or indemnification obligation included in a provision, clause, covenant, or agreement contained in, collateral to, or affecting a contract with a design professional involving a public work that requires a design professional to defend or indemnify a political subdivision, its agents, contractors, subcontractors or suppliers shall be deemed void and against public policy and wholly unenforceable except to the extent that such damages were caused by or the result of the negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct of the design professional. This section shall not be waived or modified by contractual agreement, act, or omission of the parties.

§ 2. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 2879-d to read as follows:

§ 2879-d. Design professional liability. 1. As used in this section:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
a. The term "design professional" shall mean:
(1) An individual licensed pursuant to articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law, or
(2) Any corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other business entity legally authorized to practice any of the professions regulated by articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law.

b. The term "state authority" shall mean a public authority or public benefit corporation created by or existing under this chapter or any other law of the state of New York, with one or more of its members appointed by the governor or who serve as members by virtue of holding a civil office of the state, other than an interstate or international authority or public benefit corporation, including subsidiaries of such public authority or public benefit corporation.

c. The term "local authority" shall mean: (1) a public authority or public benefit corporation created by or existing under this chapter or any other law of the state of New York whose members do not hold a civil office of the state, are not appointed by the governor or are appointed by the governor specifically upon the recommendation of the local government or governments; (2) a not-for-profit corporation affiliated with, sponsored by, or created by a county, city, town or village government; (3) a local industrial developmental agency or authority or other local public benefit corporation; (4) an affiliate of such local authority; or (5) a land bank corporation created pursuant to article sixteen of the not-for-profit corporation law.

2. Any defense or indemnification obligation included in a provision, clause, covenant, or agreement contained in, collateral to, or affecting a contract for design professional services involving a public work that requires a design professional to defend or indemnify a state authority or local authority, its agents, contractors, subcontractors or suppliers shall be deemed void and against public policy and wholly unenforceable except to the extent that such damages were caused by or the result of the negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct of the design professional. This section shall not be waived or modified by contractual agreement, act, or omission of the parties.

§ 3. Section 136-a of the state finance law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

6. a. As used in this subdivision:
(1) The term "design professional" shall mean: (i) an individual licensed pursuant to articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law; or (ii) any corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other business entity legally authorized to practice any of the professions regulated by articles one hundred forty-five, one hundred forty-seven, and one hundred forty-eight of the education law.

(2) The term "state agency" shall mean (i) any state department, (ii) any division, board, commission or bureau of any state department, (iii) the state university of New York and the city university of New York, including all their constituent units, or (iv) a board, a majority of whose members are appointed by the governor or who serve by virtue of being state officers or employees as defined in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of paragraph (i) of subdivision one of section seventy-three of the public officers law.

b. Any defense or indemnification obligation included in a provision, clause, covenant, or agreement contained in, collateral to, or affecting a contract for design professional services involving a public work that requires a design professional to defend or indemnify such state agency, its agents, contractors, subcontractors or suppliers shall be deemed void and against public policy and wholly unenforceable except to the extent that such damages were caused by or the result of the negligence, recklessness, or willful misconduct of the design professional. This section shall not be waived or modified by contractual agreement, act, or omission of the parties.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
