AN ACT to amend the legislative law, the public officers law and the tax law, in relation to eligibility to assume office for persons owing past-due tax liabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The legislative law is amended by adding a new section 3-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 3-a. Past-due tax liabilities of members-elect. 1. The legislature 4 shall require a tax clearance from the department of taxation and 5 finance, as provided for in section one hundred seventy-one-w of the tax 6 law, for each member-elect of the legislature. No person elected to the 7 legislature having past-due tax liabilities, as defined in subdivision 8 one of section one hundred seventy-one-w of the tax law, or otherwise 9 denied a tax clearance by the department of taxation and finance pursu-10 ant to such section, shall be sworn into or assume office unless and 11 until such past-due tax liabilities are satisfied, settled, or made 12 subject to a payment plan established by the department of taxation and 13 finance and in which such person is in good standing.

14 2. If, after six months subsequent to the date on which such member-e-15 lect would have been sworn into office but for their owing past-due tax 16 liabilities, such past-due tax liabilities have not been satisfied, 17 settled, or made subject to a payment plan established by the department 18 of taxation and finance and in which such person is in good standing, 19 then a special election shall be held to fill such office.

20 § 2. Section 3 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new 21 subdivision 1-b to read as follows:

22 1-b. (i) Any person elected to the office of a statewide elected offi-
23 cial, which for the purposes of this section shall mean the governor,

1 lieutenant governor, comptroller or attorney general, shall, upon 2 certification of such person's election, request a tax clearance from 3 the department of taxation and finance, as provided for in section one 4 hundred seventy-one-w of the tax law. No such person having past-due tax 5 liabilities, as defined in subdivision one of section one hundred seven-6 ty-one-w of the tax law, or otherwise denied a tax clearance by the 7 department of taxation and finance pursuant to such section, shall be 8 sworn into or assume office unless and until such past-due tax liabil-9 ities are satisfied, settled, or made subject to a payment plan estab-
10 lished by the department of taxation and finance and in which such 11 person is in good standing.

12 (ii) If, after six months subsequent to the date on which a person 13 elected to statewide office would have been sworn into office but for 14 their owing past-due tax liabilities, such past-due tax liabilities have 15 not been satisfied, settled, or made subject to a payment plan estab-16 lished by the department of taxation and finance and in which such 17 person is in good standing, then a special election shall be held to 18 fill such office.

19 § 3. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 171-w to read as 20 follows:

21 § 171-w. Enforcement of delinquent tax liabilities through tax clear-22 ances. (1) For the purposes of this section, the term "tax liabilities"
23 shall mean any tax, surcharge, or fee administered by the commissioner, 24 or any penalty or interest owed by an individual or entity. The term 25 "past-due tax liabilities" means any unpaid tax liabilities that have 26 become fixed and final such that the taxpayer no longer has any right to 27 administrative or judicial review. The term "government entity" means 28 the state of New York, or any of its agencies, political subdivisions, 29 instrumentalities, public corporations (including a public corporation 30 created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state or Canada), 31 or combination thereof.

32 (2) The commissioner, or his or her designee, shall cooperate with any 33 government entity that is required by law or has elected to require tax 34 clearances to establish procedures by which the department shall receive 35 a tax clearance request and transmit such tax clearance to the govern-36 ment entity, and any other procedures deemed necessary to carry out the 37 provisions of this section. These procedures shall, to the extent prac-38 ticable, require secure electronic communication between the department 39 and the requesting government entity for the transmission of tax clear-40 ance requests to the department and transmission of tax clearances to 41 the requesting entity. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a 42 government entity shall be authorized to share any data or information 43 with the department that is necessary to ensure the proper matching of a 44 person who is the subject of a tax clearance request to the tax records 45 maintained by the department.

46 (3) Upon receipt of a tax clearance request, the department shall 47 examine its records to determine whether the subject of the tax clear-48 ance request has past-due tax liabilities equal to or in excess of the 49 dollar threshold applicable for such tax clearance request. When a tax 50 clearance request so requires, the department shall also determine 51 whether (i) the subject of such request has complied with applicable tax 52 return filing requirements for each of the past three years; and/or (ii) 53 whether a subject of such request that is an individual or entity that 54 is a person required to register pursuant to section one thousand one 55 hundred thirty-four of this chapter is registered pursuant to such 56 section. The department shall deny a tax clearance if it determines that

1 the subject of a tax clearance request has past-due tax liabilities
2 equal to or in excess of the applicable threshold or, when the tax
3 clearance request so requires, has not complied with applicable return 4 filing and/or registration requirements.

5 (4) If a tax clearance is denied, the government entity that requested 6 the clearance shall provide notice to the subject of the request to 7 contact the department. Such notice shall be made by first class mail 8 with a certificate of mailing and a copy of such notice also shall be 9 provided to the department. When the subject of the request contacts the 10 department, the department shall inform him or her of the basis for the 11 denial of the tax clearance and shall also inform such person (i) that a 12 tax clearance denied due to past-due tax liabilities may be issued once 13 the taxpayer fully satisfies past-due tax liabilities or makes payment 14 arrangements satisfactory to the commissioner; (ii) that a tax clearance 15 denied due to failure to file tax returns may be issued once the indi-
16 vidual has satisfied the applicable return filing requirements; (iii)
17 that a tax clearance denied for failure to register pursuant to section 18 one thousand one hundred thirty-four of this chapter may be issued once 19 the individual has registered pursuant to such section; and (iv) the 20 grounds for challenging the denial of a tax clearance listed in subdivi-21 sion five of this section.

22 (5) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as 23 specifically provided herein, an individual denied a tax clearance shall 24 have no right to commence a court action or proceeding or seek any other 25 legal recourse against the department or the government entity related 26 to the denial of a tax clearance by the department.

27 (b) An individual seeking to challenge the denial of a tax clearance 28 must protest to the department or the division of tax appeals no later 29 than sixty days from the date of the notification to the individual that 30 the tax clearance was denied. An individual may challenge a department 31 finding of past-due tax liabilities only on the grounds that (i) the 32 individual or entity denied the tax clearance is not the individual or 33 entity with the past-due tax liabilities at issue or (ii) the past-due 34 tax liabilities were satisfied. An individual may challenge a depart-35 ment finding of failure to comply with tax return filing requirements 36 only on the grounds that all required tax returns have been filed for 37 each of the past three years.

38 (c) Nothing in this subdivision is intended to limit any individual 39 from seeking relief from joint and several liability pursuant to section 40 six hundred fifty-four of this chapter, to the extent that he or she is 41 eligible pursuant to that section, or establishing to the department 42 that the enforcement of the underlying tax liabilities has been stayed 43 by the filing of a petition pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code of 1978
44 (Title Eleven of the United States Code).

45 (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may 46 exchange with a government entity any data or information that, in the 47 discretion of the commissioner, is necessary for the implementation of a 48 tax clearance requirement. However, no government entity may re-disclose 49 this information to any other entity or person, other than for the 50 purpose of informing the individual that a required tax clearance has 51 been denied, unless otherwise permitted by law.

52 (7) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the activities to 53 collect past-due tax liabilities undertaken by the department pursuant 54 to this section shall not in any way limit, restrict or impair the 55 department from exercising any other authority to collect or enforce tax 56 liabilities under any other applicable provision of law.

1 (8) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of 2 this section are not applicable to the tax clearance required by section 3 one hundred seventy-one-v of this article.

4 § 4. This act shall take effect June 1, 2018; provided, however, that 5 the department of taxation and finance, and any other government entity 6 electing to receive a tax clearance from the department of taxation and 7 finance may work to execute the necessary procedures and technical 8 changes to support the tax clearance process as described in this act 9 before that date; provided, further, that this effective date will not 10 impact the administration of any tax clearance program authorized by 11 another provision of law.
