(F) An insurer who issues reimbursement under this paragraph shall 5 submit such payments either directly to the provider at the rates negotiated between the provider and the insurer, or if no rate has been negotiated between the provider and insurer, then to the insured in the form of a joint check specifying as payees both the insured and the 9 provider of ambulance services, at the usual and customary charge, which shall not be excessive or unreasonable; provided however, if the provid-10 11 er of ambulance services has on file a duly executed assignment of benefits for such services to the insurer, notwithstanding any policy 12 language to the contrary, the issuer shall accept such assignment of 14 benefits and the insurer shall issue reimbursement solely to the provid-15 er. An insurer issuing payment in the form of a joint check shall notify 16 the provider via electronic communication of the issuance of such payment. The notification shall include the name of the patient, the 17 date of service, the date of payment, the amount of payment and the address to which the payment was sent.

- § 2. Paragraph 15 of subsection (1) of section 3221 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (F) to read as follows:
- 22 (F) An insurer who issues reimbursement under this paragraph shall 23 submit such payments either directly to the provider at the rates negotiated between the provider and the insurer, or if no rate has been 25 negotiated between the provider and insurer, then to the insured in the
