Introduced by M. of A. GANTT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to removing vehicles from traffic following an accident

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 600 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

- 3. Removal of a vehicle. A person who moves a vehicle in a manner 4 consistent with subdivision (e) of section twelve hundred of this chapter and who remains in the immediate vicinity of an accident shall not 6 be construed to be in violation of this section because of such movement.
- § 2. Section 1200 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding 8 9 a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:
- (e) Whenever a vehicle is involved in an accident involving no 10 11 personal injury or death, the driver of any involved vehicle shall immediately move or cause removal of the vehicle from the travel lane to a 12 13 safe location along the highway in the immediate vicinity of the inci-14 dent, provided that the vehicle is operable and the movement of the 15 vehicle can be done safely. Movement consistent with the provisions of 16 this subdivision shall not be construed to imply that no injury has occurred nor shall the driver be considered liable or at fault regarding 17 the cause of the accident solely by moving or causing the removal of the 18 vehicle. Moving a vehicle consistent with this subdivision shall not 19 20 relieve an investigating police officer from the obligation to file a report otherwise required. Nothing in this subdivision shall be 22 construed to authorize otherwise unqualified persons to clear or remove hazardous materials from the highway or to move vehicles which are 23
- transporting hazardous materials in a manner inconsistent with applica-25 ble law.
