24 assess the need for additional incubator facilities to nurture the 25 growth and development of small businesses[-];

26 ~~[11-]~~ 12. provide assistance to small business in the state, and 27 facilitate access to programs serving small business, to ensure that 28 such businesses benefit, as needed, from technical, managerial, finan-
29 cial, and general business assistance; training; marketing; organization
30 and personnel skill development; project management assistance; technol-
31 ogy assistance; bond and insurance education assistance; online market-
32 place lending awareness and assistance; and other business development 33 assistance. In addition, either independently or in conjunction with 34 other state agencies:

35 (a) develop a clearinghouse of information on programs and services
36 provided by entities that may assist such businesses;

37 (b) seek to maximize utilization by small businesses of available
38 federal resources including but not limited to federal grants, loans, 39 loan guarantees, surety bonding guarantees, technical assistance, and 40 programs and services of the federal small business administration; and

41 (c) develop and implement, in conjunction with the department of 42 financial services, a small business online marketplace lending educa-43 tion and outreach campaign to educate businesses in plain-language as to 44 the true costs associated with obtaining loans from online marketplace 45 lenders including true and up-front transparent pricing and terms, the 46 disclosure of annualized percentage rates, interest rates, fees and 47 charges; disclosure of terms for repayment, early repayment, and refi-48 nancing of a loan and any penalties that may be applied; and any other 49 information that is deemed necessary by the department of economic 50 development. The department of economic development shall develop and 51 implement a plan to distribute such information to small business 52 owners, including but not limited to, printed material, publication on 53 the internet and through coordination with other state entities that 54 routinely interact with small businesses in this state. The department 55 of economic development shall make translations of all educational materials available in languages other than English, including the six most common non-English languages spoken by individuals in this state~~[-]; and~~ [~~12-~~] 13. compile an annual report on the state of small businesses, particularly those with twenty-five employees or less which shall be known as micro-businesses under this subdivision. The commissioner shall, on or before June first, two thousand fourteen and annually thereafter, submit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly a report that shall include, but not be limited to, the following information for each calendar year:

(a) the growth and economic trends of small businesses which may be categorized by various small business sizes and/or sectors;

(b) an analysis of relevant and available employment, statistical and economic data of the various small business sectors throughout New York state, which may be categorized by various small business sizes;

(c) suggestions to improve the efficiency of existing loan programs;

(d) suggestions to improve small business growth;

(e) statistical and economic analysis of the state of small businesses by various small business sizes and/or sectors; and

(f) identification and review of the local and state regulations, fines and penalties particular to small businesses which may be categorized by various small business sizes and/or sectors.

The division shall collaborate with other state and local agencies to develop the annual report. The office shall maintain and publish such information on the small business directory webpage in a manner that allows individuals to search the report by name, date, or type of statistics. The format of the annual report shall be developed in consultation with various small business owners to ensure the information collected, analyzed, and published for the purposes of this subdivision is representative of all small businesses in the state.

§ 2. Section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968 constituting the New York state urban development corporation act is amended by adding a new section 16-bb to read as follows:

§ 16-bb. Main street center grant program. 1. The corporation shall administer a statewide program to create main street centers in each of the counties in New York state, with the exception of the five boroughs of New York city.

2. Each county main street center shall be eligible to receive a matching grant of up to one hundred thousand dollars toward the creation of the county center if the county designates the equivalent of a full-time employee to the main street development effort. The grants may be used for facade renovation and interior rehabilitation.

3. Each center shall house a comprehensive library of main street publications available to be loaned.

4. Each center shall develop a central database of all state and federal grant resources. The corporation shall assist localities in identifying potential sources of funding and provide technical assistance regarding grant procurement.

5. Each center shall develop guidelines to assist localities in ensuring that facade renovations are done in a manner that respects the architecture of the building to be renovated and helps to enhance the historic integrity of the main street district.

§ 3. The executive law is amended by adding two new sections 102-a and 149-a to read as follows:

§ 102-a. Rule-making documents submitted to the secretary of state. 1. On or after January first, two thousand eighteen, all rule-making documents shall be submitted to the secretary of state in electronic format.

1 The secretary of state shall make such documents available without 2 charge to the public electronically, and shall disseminate such docu-3 ments without charge to interested parties by various means, including 4 at a minimum through one or more electronic mailing lists, RSS feeds,
5 and any other technologies determined by the secretary to be effective 6 in providing timely and effective access to rule-making information. At 7 least one such means shall utilize a rules tracker program or similar 8 program that enables a user to customize the rule-making information
9 that will be provided.

10 2. For the purposes of this section, the term "RSS" or "rich site 11 summary" shall mean a format for delivering regularly changing web 12 content.

13 § 149-a. Online publication of state register. 1. The secretary of 14 state shall publish an electronic version of the state register on its 15 website and shall make it available without charge online.

16 2. The internet home page of every state agency that adopts rules and 17 regulations or publishes notices in the state register shall maintain a 18 link to the electronic version of the state register.

19 § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 6-a of section 202 of the state 20 administrative procedure act, as amended by chapter 295 of the laws of 21 2017, is amended to read as follows:

22 (a) An agency shall transmit a copy of any rule making notice prepared 23 pursuant to this article to the governor, the temporary president of the 24 senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly 25 and the administrative regulations review commission at the time such 26 notice is submitted to the secretary of state for publication in the 27 state register. Such transmittal shall include the complete rule text, 28 regulatory impact statement, regulatory flexibility analysis, rural area
29 flexibility analysis, or revisions thereof, and any other information 30 submitted to the secretary of state pursuant to this article.

31 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
