AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the medical board of the New York city employees' retirement system

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision a of section 13-123 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 59 of the city of New York for the year 1996, is amended to read as follows:

4 a. (1) There shall be a medical board of three physicians. One of such 5 physicians shall be appointed by the board and shall hold office at the 6 pleasure of such board, one shall be appointed by the commissioner of 7 health and shall hold office at the pleasure of such commissioner, and 8 the third shall be appointed by the commissioner of citywide administra-9 tive services and shall hold office at the pleasure of such commission-10 er.

11 (2) The board, the commissioner of health and the commissioner of 12 citywide administrative services shall each have power to appoint one or 13 more but not exceeding [four] seven alternate physicians, who shall hold 14 office at the pleasure of such appointing board or official. Whenever 15 the board of trustees of the retirement system shall so direct, the 16 functions, powers and duties of the medical board, in addition to being 17 performed and exercised by the three physicians appointed pursuant to 18 paragraph one of this subdivision, shall be performed and exercised by one or more groups of three physicians as hereinafter prescribed. Each 19 such group of three physicians shall function separately as the medical 20 21 board and each such group may consist partly of a physician or physi-22 cians appointed pursuant to paragraph one of this subdivision and partly 23 of one or more alternate physicians or may consist entirely of alternate 24 physicians; provided, however, that one of the physicians or alternate 25 physicians in each such group shall be appointed by the board, one by 26 the commissioner of health and one by the commissioner of citywide 27 administrative services.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
