(a) General. If federal taxable income of a resident individual is determined by itemizing deductions from his federal adjusted gross income, he may elect to deduct his New York itemized deduction in lieu of his New York standard deduction. If federal taxable income of a resident individual is not determined by itemizing deductions from his federal adjusted gross income, he may elect to deduct his New York itemized deduction in lieu of his New York standard deduction. The New York 10 itemized deduction of a resident individual means the total amount of 12 his deductions from federal adjusted gross income, other than federal deductions for personal exemptions, as provided in the laws of the United States for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section, except as provided for under subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

- § 2. Subsection (d) of section 615 of the tax law is amended by adding 18 a new paragraph 6 to read as follows:
- 19 (6) the total amount of the state and local real property taxes paid 20 during the taxable year, as such term is defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (a) of section one hundred sixty-four of the Internal 21 22 Revenue Code without regard to paragraph (6) of subsection (b) of such 23 section to the extent such taxes paid were not entirely claimed during 24 the taxable year, or for the taxpayer who filed the standard deduction

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
