1 § 4. Section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974 consti-2 tuting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four is 3 amended by adding a new subdivision h to read as follows:

h. Upon the offering of a lease to a prospective tenant, an owner or a landlord shall be required to provide such tenant with the documentation used by such owner or landlord to support any allowable increases in the legal regulated rent during the previous four years.

8 § 5. Section 213-a of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 9 chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

10 § 213-a. Actions to be commenced within four years; residential rent 11 overcharge. An action on a residential rent overcharge shall be commenced within four years of the first overcharge alleged and no 12 13 determination of an overcharge and no award or calculation of an award 14 of the amount of any overcharge may be based upon an overcharge having 15 occurred more than four years before the action is commenced. This 16 section shall preclude examination of the rental history of the housing 17 accommodation prior to the four-year period immediately preceding the commencement of the action; provided however, for any year in which an 18 owner or a landlord who is required to file an annual rent registration 19 20 statement, has failed to timely file such annual rent registration 21 statement, a court of competent jurisdiction shall consider such year or 22 years when determining the current legal regulated rent.

S 6. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to any action or proceeding pending in any court or any application, complaint or proceeding before an administrative agency on the effective date of this act, as well as any action or proceeding commenced thereafter; provided, however, that:

(a) the amendments to subdivision a of section 26-516 of the administrative code of the city of New York made by section one of this act shall expire on the same date as such law expires and shall not affect the expiration of such section as provided under section 26-520 of such code; and

(b) the amendments to the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four made by sections three and four of this act shall expire on the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration of such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974.
