AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law and the judiciary law, in relation to human trafficking courts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 170.15 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

3 5. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary,
4 in any county outside a city having a population of one million or more,
5 upon or after arraignment of a defendant on an information, a simplified 6 information, a prosecutor's information or a misdemeanor complaint pend-7 ing in a local criminal court, such court may, upon motion of the 8 defendant and after giving the district attorney an opportunity to be 9 heard, order that the action be removed from the court in which the 10 matter is pending to another local criminal court in the same county, or 11 with consent of the district attorney to another court in an adjoining 12 county, that has been designated as a human trafficking court by the 13 chief administrator of the courts, and such human trafficking court may 14 then conduct such action to judgement or other final deposition;
15 provided, however, that an order of removal issued under this subdivi-16 sion shall not take effect until five days after the date the order is 17 issued unless, prior to such effective date, the human trafficking court 18 notifies the court that issued the order that:

19 i. it will not accept the action, in which event the order shall not 20 take effect; or

21 ii. it will accept the action on a date prior to such effective date,
22 in which event the order shall take effect upon such prior date.

23 (b) Upon providing notification pursuant to subparagraph i or ii of 24 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the human trafficking court shall

1 promptly give notice to the defendant, his or her counsel, and the
2 district attorney.

3 § 2. Section 180.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 4 a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

5 4. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary,
6 in any county outside a city having a population of one million or more,
7 upon or after arraignment of a defendant on a felony complaint pending 8 in a local criminal court having preliminary jurisdiction thereof, such 9 court may, upon motion of the defendant and after giving the district 10 attorney an opportunity to be heard, order that the action be removed 11 from the court in which the matter is pending to another local criminal 12 court in the same county, or with consent of the district attorney to 13 another court in an adjoining county, that has been designated as a 14 human trafficking court by the chief administrator of the courts, and 15 such human trafficking court may then conduct such action to judgment or 16 other final disposition; provided, however, that an order of removal 17 issued under this subdivision shall not take effect until five days
18 after the date the order is issued unless, prior to such effective date,
19 the human trafficking court notifies the court that issued the order 20 that:

21 i. it will not accept the action, in which event the order shall not 22 take effect; or

23 ii. it will accept the action on a date prior to such effective date,
24 in which event the order shall take effect upon such prior date.

25 (b) Upon providing notification pursuant to subparagraph i or ii of 26 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the human trafficking court shall 27 promptly give notice to the defendant, his or her counsel and the 28 district attorney.

29 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by 30 adding a new paragraph (w) to read as follows:

31 (w) To the extent practicable, establish such number of human traf-
32 ficking courts as may be necessary to fulfill the purposes of subdivi-33 sion five of section 170.15 and subdivision four of section 180.20 of 34 the criminal procedure law.

35 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
