AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to the text of proposed constitutional amendments and questions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4-108 of the election law, paragraph b of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 117 of the laws of 1985, paragraph d of subdivision 1 and subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 136 of the laws of 1978, and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 234 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

§ 4-108. Certification of proposed constitutional amendments and questions.  1.  a.  Whenever any proposed amendment to the constitution or other question provided by law to be submitted to a statewide vote shall be submitted to the people for their approval, the state board of elections at least three months prior to the general election at which such amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted, shall (i) transmit to each county board of elections a certified copy of the text of each amendment, proposition or question and a statement of the form in which it is to be submitted; and (ii) publish a copy of the text of each amendment, proposition or question and a statement of the form in which it is to be submitted on the state board of elections website until the day after the general election of that particular year.

b. Whenever any proposal, proposition or referendum as provided by law is to be submitted to a vote of the people of a county, city, town, village or special district, at an election conducted by the board of elections, the clerk of such political subdivision, at least thirty-six days prior to the election at which such proposal, proposition or referendum is to be submitted, shall transmit to each board of elections a certified copy of the text of such proposal, proposition or referendum and a statement of the form in which it is to be submitted. If a special election is to be held, such transmittal shall also give the date of such election.

c. Such certified copy shall set out all new matter in italics and enclose in brackets, [-], all matter to be eliminated from existing law, and at the bottom of each page shall be appended the words:

Explanation: Matter in italics is new, to be added; matter in brackets [-] is old law, to be omitted.

d. In addition to the text, as required under paragraph a of this subdivision, such transmittal shall contain an abstract of such proposed amendment, proposition or question, prepared by the state board of elections, concisely stating the purpose and effect thereof in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings.

2. The form in which the proposed amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted shall consist of only an abbreviated title indicating generally and briefly, and in a clear, unbiased and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings, the subject matter of the amendment, proposition or question. If more than one such amendment, proposition or question is to be voted upon at such election, each such amendment, proposition or question respectively shall be separately and consecutively numbered.

3. The attorney general shall advise in the preparation of such abstract and such form of submission, as required under paragraphs a and d of subdivision one of this section, to the state board of elections at least four months prior to the general election at which such amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted.

§ 2. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a law.
