S. 1873

 A person is guilty of bribery in the first degree when the person confers, or offers or agrees to confer: (1) any benefit upon a public servant [upon an agreement or understanding that] with the intent to influence such public servant's vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or exercise of discretion as a public servant [will thereby be influenced] in the investigation, arrest, detention, prosecution or incarceration of any person for the commission or alleged commission of a class A felony defined in article two hundred twenty of this part or an attempt to commit any such class A felony; or (2) any benefit valued in excess of one hundred thousand dollars upon a public servant [upon an agreement or understanding that] with the intent to influence such public servant's vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or exercise of discretion as a public servant [will thereby be influenced].

Bribery in the first degree is a class B felony.

§ 4. Section 200.05 of the penal law is amended to read as follows: § 200.05 Bribery; defense.

In any prosecution for bribery[7]: (1) it is a defense that the defendant conferred or agreed to confer the benefit involved upon the public servant involved as a result of conduct of the latter constituting larceny committed by means of extortion, or an attempt to commit the same, or coercion, or an attempt to commit coercion[7]; and (2) it is also a defense that the benefit that the defendant conferred, or offered or agreed to confer, upon the public servant was a legitimate campaign contribution, unless such contribution was made upon an agreement or understanding that such public servant's vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or exercise of discretion as a public servant would thereby be influenced.

- § 5. Section 180.03 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 577 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:
- § 180.03 Commercial bribing in the first degree.

A person is guilty of commercial bribing in the first degree when he or she confers, or offers or agrees to confer, any benefit upon any employee, agent or fiduciary without the consent of the latter's employer or principal, with intent to influence his or her conduct in relation to his or her employer's or principal's affairs, and when the value of the benefit conferred or offered or agreed to be conferred exceeds one thousand dollars [and causes economic harm to the employer or principal in an amount exceeding two hundred fifty dollars].

Commercial bribing in the first degree is a class E felony.

§ 6. Section 180.08 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 577 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

§ 180.08 Commercial bribe receiving in the first degree.

An employee, agent or fiduciary is guilty of commercial bribe receiving in the first degree when, without the consent of his or her employer or principal, he or she solicits, accepts or agrees to accept any benefit from another person upon an agreement or understanding that such benefit will influence his or her conduct in relation to his or her employer's or principal's affairs, and when the value of the benefit solicited, accepted or agreed to be accepted exceeds one thousand dollars [and causes economic harm to the employer or principal in an amount exceeding two hundred fifty dollars].

Commercial bribe receiving in the first degree is a class E felony.

§ 7. Section 195.00 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 906 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

55 § 195.00 Official misconduct in the third degree.

§ 11. Subdivision 7 of section 200.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

- (f) in the case of an abuse of public trust crime, as defined in section 196.00 of the penal law, specifies, as applicable, that the defendant or defendants committed, or attempted, conspired or solicited another to commit, a felony and intentionally used his or her position as a public servant in a manner that significantly facilitated the commission or concealment of the offense; and
- 9 § 12. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 195.30 and 10 195.35 to read as follows:
- 11 § 195.30 Undisclosed self-dealing in the second degree.

A person is quilty of undisclosed self-dealing in the second degree when, being a public servant, he or she intentionally engages in conduct or a course of conduct in his or her official capacity in connection with the award of a public contract or public grant or other effort to obtain or retain public business or public funds that is intended to confer an undisclosed benefit on himself, herself, a spouse, domestic partner, child, parent, or sibling of the public servant, a person with whom a public servant has a business or other financial relationship, or a firm in which the public servant has a present or potential interest and thereby obtains or attempts to obtain a benefit for himself, herself, a spouse, domestic partner, child, parent, or sibling of the public servant, a person with whom a public servant has a business or other financial relationship, or a firm in which the public servant has a present or potential interest with a value in excess of three thousand dollars. A benefit is disclosed if its existence is made known prior to the alleged wrongful conduct to either (i) the relevant state or local ethics commission or (ii) the official responsible for the public servant's appointment to his or her position, provided that person is not a participant in the alleged wrongful conduct.

Undisclosed self-dealing in the second degree is a class D felony.
§ 195.35 Undisclosed self-dealing in the first degree.

A person is quilty of undisclosed self-dealing in the first degree when, being a public servant, he or she intentionally engages in conduct or a course of conduct in his or her official capacity in connection with the award of a public contract or public grant or other effort to obtain or retain public business or public funds that is intended to confer an undisclosed benefit on himself, herself, a spouse, domestic partner, child, parent, or sibling of the public servant, a person with whom a public servant has a business or other financial relationship, or a firm in which the public servant has a present or potential interest and thereby obtains or attempts to obtain a benefit for himself, herself, a spouse, domestic partner, child, parent, or sibling of the public servant, a person with whom a public servant has a business or other financial relationship, or a firm in which the public servant has a present or potential interest with a value in excess of ten thousand dollars. A benefit is disclosed if its existence is made known prior to the alleged wrongful conduct to either (i) the relevant state or local ethics commission or (ii) the official responsible for the public servant's appointment to his or her position, provided that person is not a participant in the alleged wrongful conduct.

Undisclosed self-dealing in the first degree is a class C felony.

§ 13. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
