2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 11, 2017

Introduced by Sen. AVELLA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law and the civil service law, in relation to protection of employees and former employees against retaliatory action by employers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 740 of the labor law, as added by chapter 660 of 2 the laws of 1984, paragraph (g) of subdivision 1 as added and paragraph 3 (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 442 of the laws of 2006, and 4 paragraph (d) of subdivision 4 as added by chapter 24 of the laws of 5 2002, is amended to read as follows:

6 § 740. Retaliatory [personnel] action by employers; prohibition. 1. 7 Definitions. For purposes of this section, unless the context specif-8 ically indicates otherwise:

9 (a) "Employee" means an individual who performs services for and under 10 the control and direction of an employer for wages or other remunera-11 tion.

(b) "Employer" means any person, firm, partnership, institution,corporation, or association that employs one or more employees.

14 (c) "Law, rule or regulation" includes: (i) any duly enacted federal, 15 state or local statute or ordinance [or]; (ii) any rule or regulation 16 promulgated pursuant to [any federal, state or local] such statute or 17 ordinance; or (iii) any judicial or administrative decision, ruling or 18 order.

19 (d) "Public body" includes the following:

20 (i) the United States Congress, any state legislature, or any [popu-21 larly-elected] elected local governmental body, or any member or employ-22 ee thereof;

23 (ii) any federal, state, or local [judiciary] court, or any member or 24 employee thereof, or any grand or petit jury;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01270-01-7

1	(iii) any federal, state, or local regulatory, administrative, or
2	public agency or authority, or instrumentality thereof; [or]
3	(iv) any federal, state, or local law enforcement agency, prosecutori-
4	al office, or police or peace officer ;
5	(v) any federal, state or local department of an executive branch of
6	government; or
7	(vi) any division, board, bureau, office, committee, or commission of
8	any of the public bodies described in subparagraphs (i) through (v) of
9	this paragraph.
10	(e) "Retaliatory [personnel] action" means the discharge, suspension
11	[or demotion of], demotion, penalization or discrimination against an
12	employee or former employee, or other adverse [employment] action taken
13	against an employee or former employee [in the terms and conditions of
14	employment].
15	(f) "Supervisor" means any individual within an employer's organiza-
16	tion who has the authority to direct and control the work performance of
17	[the affected] an employee; or who has [managerial] authority to take
18	corrective action regarding the [violation of the law, rule or regu-
19	lation] illegal business activity of which the employee complains.
20	(g) ["Health care fraud" means health care fraud as defined by article
	one hundred seventy seven of the penal law.] "Agent" means any individ-
21
22	ual, partnership, association, corporation or group of persons acting on
23	behalf of an employer.
24	(h) "Illegal business activity" means any practice, procedure, action
25	or failure to act by an employer, or an employee or agent of such
26	employer, taken in the course of the employer's business, whether or not
27	within the scope of employment or agency, that is in violation of any
28	law, rule or regulation punishable by imprisonment or civil or criminal
29	penalty.
30	2. Prohibitions. An employer shall not take any retaliatory [person-
31	nel] action against an employee or former employee because such employee
32	or former employee does any of the following while employed by the
33	employer, whether or not within the scope of the employee's job duties:
34	(a) discloses to a supervisor or a public body, or threatens to
35	[disclose] make a disclosure to a [supervisor or to a] public body
36	unless the employer remedies the illegal business activity, information
37	about an illegal business activity [, policy or practice of the employer
38	that is in violation of law, rule or regulation which violation creates
39	and presents a substantial and specific danger to the public health or
40	safety, or which constitutes health care fraud];
41	(b) provides information to, or testifies before, any public body
42	conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any such [violation
43	of a law, rule or regulation by such employer] illegal business
44	activity ; or
45	(c) objects to, or refuses to participate in , any [such] illegal busi-
46	ness activity[, policy or practice in violation of a law, rule or regu-
47	lation].
48	3. Application. The protection against retaliatory [personnel] action
49	provided by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivision two of this
50	section shall apply to any employee who in good faith reasonably
51	believes that an illegal business activity has occurred or will occur,
52	based on information that the employee in good faith reasonably believes
53	to be true; provided however that the protection against retaliatory
54	action provided by paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section
55	pertaining to disclosure to a public body shall not apply to an employee
56	who makes such disclosure to a public body unless the employee has

[brought] made a good faith effort to notify his or her employer by 1 2 bringing the illegal business activity[, policy or practice in violation 3 of law, rule or regulation] to the attention of a supervisor [of the 4 employer a reasonable opportunity to 5 correct such activity[, policy or practice]. Such employer notification б shall not be required where: (a) the employer has not posted any notice 7 required by subdivision eight of this section; (b) there is an imminent 8 and serious danger to the public health or safety; (c) the employee 9 reasonably believes that reporting to the supervisor would result in a 10 destruction of evidence or other concealment of the illegal business activity; (d) such activity could reasonably be expected to lead to 11 endangering the welfare of a minor; (e) the employee reasonably believes 12 13 that reporting to the supervisor would result in physical harm to the 14 employee or any other person; or (f) the employee reasonably believes that the supervisor is already aware of the illegal business activity 15 16 and will not correct such activity. 17 4. Violation; remedy. (a) An employee who has been the subject of a 18 retaliatory [personnel] action in violation of this section may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction for relief as 19 set forth in subdivision five of this section within [one year] two 20 21 years after the alleged retaliatory [personnel] action was taken. (b) Any action authorized by this section may be brought in the county 22 in which the alleged retaliatory [personnel] action occurred, in the 23 county in which the complainant resides, or in the county in which the 24 25 employer has its principal place of business. In any such action, the 26 parties shall be entitled to a jury trial. 27 (c) [It shall be a defense to any action brought pursuant to this section that the personnel action was predicated upon grounds other than 28 29 the employee's exercise of any rights protected by this section.] Except 30 as otherwise provided in this section, a violation of this section is 31 established when the complainant demonstrates that a motivating factor 32 for the retaliatory action violates subdivision two of this section. 33 Remedies for violation of subdivision two of this section shall be limited solely to those provided in paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of 34 35 subdivision five of this section if the employer demonstrates that it would have taken the same action in the absence of the impermissible 36 motivating factor. It shall [also] be a defense that the individual was 37 38 an independent contractor. 39 [(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (c) of this subdivision, a health care employee who has been the subject of a retal-40 iatory action by a health care employer in violation of section seven 41 hundred forty-one of this article may institute a civil action in a 42 court of competent jurisdiction for relief as set forth in subdivision 43 44 five of this section within two years after the alleged retaliatory 45 personnel action was taken. In addition to the relief set forth in that 46 subdivision, the court, in its discretion, based upon a finding that the employer acted in bad faith in the retaliatory action, may assess the 47 employer a civil penalty of an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars, to be paid to the improving quality of patient care fund, 48 49 established pursuant to section ninety-seven-aaaa of the state finance 50 51 law.] 52 5. Relief. In any action brought pursuant to subdivision four of this 53 section, the court may order relief as follows: 54

1	(b)] the reinstatement of the employee to the same position held
2	before the retaliatory $[\frac{personnel}{personnel}]$ action $[\tau]$ or to an equivalent posi-
3	tion, or front pay in lieu thereof;
4	[(c)] (b) the reinstatement of full fringe benefits and seniority
5	rights;
б	[(d)] (c) the compensation for lost wages, benefits and other remuner-
7	ation; [and
8	(e) (d) compensatory damages for economic loss and for emotional
9	distress;
10	(e) the payment by the employer of reasonable costs, disbursements,
11	and attorney's fees:
12^{11}	(f) an injunction to restrain the employer's continued violation of 13
	this section; and
14	(g) a civil penalty of an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars
15	and/or a liquidated damages award equal to amounts of damages pursuant
16	to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subdivision, if the court, in its
17	discretion, finds that the employer acted in bad faith in the retaliato-
18	ry action.
19	6. Employer relief. A court, in its discretion, may also order that
20	reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs and disbursements be awarded
21	to an employer if the court determines that an action brought by an
22	employee under this section was without basis in law or in fact.
23	7. Existing rights. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to dimin-
24	ish the rights, privileges, or remedies of any employee under any other
25	law or regulation or under any collective bargaining agreement or
26	employment contract[; except that the institution of an action in
27	accordance with this section shall be deemed a waiver of the rights and
28	remedies available under any other contract, collective bargaining
29	agreement, law, rule or regulation or under the common law].

1 is within the scope of his employment, and which is in violation of any federal, state or local law, rule or regulation], or which could reasonably be expected to lead to endangering the welfare of a minor; (ii) provides information to, or testifies before, any public body conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any violation or improper governmental action; or (iii) objects to, or refuses to participate in, any such violation or improper governmental action.

8 (b) The protection against retaliatory action provided in subpara-9 graphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall apply to 10 any employee who in good faith reasonably believes that a violation or 11 improper governmental action has occurred or will occur, based on infor-12 mation that the employee in good faith reasonably believes to be true.

13 (c) Prior to disclosing information pursuant to subparagraph (i) of 14 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an employee shall have made a good 15 faith effort to provide the appointing authority or his or her designee 16 the information to be disclosed and shall provide the appointing authority or designee a reasonable time to take appropriate action unless 17 there is imminent and serious danger to public health or safety. For the 18 19 purposes of this subdivision, an employee who acts pursuant to this 20 paragraph shall be deemed to have disclosed information to a govern-21 mental body under paragraph (a) of this subdivision. Notification to the appointing authority or designee shall not be required where: (i) 22 the employer has not posted any notice required by subdivision five of 23 24 this section; (ii) there is an imminent and serious danger to the public 25 health or safety; (iii) the employee reasonably believes that reporting 26 to the appointing authority or designee would result in a destruction of 27 evidence or other concealment of the improper governmental action; or (iv) such activity could reasonably be expected to lead to endangering 28 29 the welfare of a minor.

30 (d) "Improper governmental action" shall mean any practice, procedure, 31 action or failure to act by a public employer or employee, or an agent 32 of such employer or employee, which is undertaken in the performance of such agent's official duties, whether or not such action is within the 33 34 scope of such person's employment, and which is in violation of any law, 35 rule or regulation regarding governmental action punishable by imprison-36 ment or civil or criminal penalty. "Law, rule or regulation" includes: 37 (i) any duly enacted federal, state or local statute or ordinance; (ii) 38 any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to any such statute or ordinance; or (iii) any judicial or administrative decision, ruling or 39 40 order.

41 § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 75-b of the civil service law, as added 42 by chapter 660 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

43 3. (a) Where an employee is subject to dismissal or other disciplinary 44 action under a final and binding arbitration provision, or other disci-45 plinary procedure contained in a collectively negotiated agreement, or 46 under section seventy-five of this title or any other provision of state 47 local law, or to the elimination of job title or classification that or 48 uniquely fits and singles out such employee and the employee reasonably 49 believes that such dismissal [or], other disciplinary action or other 50 adverse action would not have been taken but for the conduct protected 51 under subdivision two of this section, he or she may assert such as a defense before the designated arbitrator or hearing officer. The merits 52 such defense shall be considered and determined as part of the arbi-53 of tration award or hearing officer decision of the matter. If there is a 54 55 finding that the dismissal or other disciplinary action is based solely 56 on a violation by the employer of such subdivision, the arbitrator or

1 hearing officer shall dismiss or recommend dismissal of the disciplinary 2 proceeding, as appropriate, and, if appropriate, reinstate the employee 3 with back pay, and, in the case of an arbitration procedure, may take 4 other appropriate action as is permitted in the collectively negotiated 5 agreement.

6 (b) Where an employee is subject to a collectively negotiated agreement which contains provisions preventing an employer from taking 7 8 adverse [personnel] actions and which contains a final and binding arbi-9 tration provision to resolve alleged violations of such provisions of 10 the agreement and the employee reasonably believes that such [personnel] 11 action would not have been taken but for the conduct protected under subdivision two of this section, he or she may assert such as a claim 12 13 before the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall consider such claim and determine its merits and shall, if a determination is made that such 14 adverse [personnel] ion is based on a violation by the employer of such 15 16 subdivision, take such action to remedy the violation as is permitted by 17 the collectively negotiated agreement.

(c) [Where] In addition to or in lieu of the procedures set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, or where an employee is not subject to any of the provisions of [paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision] such paragraphs, the employee may commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction under the same terms and conditions and for the same relief as set forth in article twenty-C of the labor law.

24 § 5. Section 75-b of the civil service law is amended by adding a new 25 subdivision 5 to read as follows:

5. Every public employer shall inform employees of their protections, rights and obligations under this section, by posting a notice thereof. Such notices shall be posted conspicuously in easily accessible and well-lighted places customarily frequented by employees and applicants for employment.

31 § 6. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 32 have become a law.
