IN SENATE

January 11, 2017

Introduced by Sen. AVELLA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the practice of certified interior design; and repealing certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 8302 of the education law is REPEALED and a new 2 section 8302 is added to read as follows:

3 § 8302. Special provisions: seals; authorization to submit
4 construction documents. 1. (a) The board shall prescribe, by rule, one 5 or more forms of seals to be used by certified interior designers hold-6 ing valid licensure under this article.

7 (b) Each certified interior designer shall obtain one seal in the form 8 approved by rules of the board. All original construction documents and 9 instruments of service including drawings, plans, specifications, or 10 reports prepared or issued by the certified interior designer or by a 11 full-time or part-time subordinate employed under his or her super-12 vision, and being filed with public officials shall bear the signature, 13 date and seal of the certified interior designer who prepared or 14 approved the document and the date on which they were sealed.

15 (c) No certified interior designer shall affix, or permit to be 16 affixed, his or her seal or signature to any plan, specification, draw-17 ing, or other document which depicts work which he or she is not compe-
18 tent or licensed to perform.

19 (d) No certified interior designer shall affix his or her signature or 20 seal to any plans, specifications, or documents which were not prepared 21 by him or her or under his or her responsible supervising control or by 22 another certified interior designer and reviewed, approved or modified

1 and adopted by him or her as his or her own work according to rules
2 adopted by the board.

3 2. Notwithstanding provisions of law to the contrary, a certified 4 interior designer with a valid license or limited permit under this 5 article may submit sealed, stamped construction documents and instru-6 ments of service within their definition of practice to any official of 7 this state or any city, town or county charged with enforcement of laws, 8 ordinances, or regulations. No official of this state or of any county, 9 city, town or village therein, charged with the enforcement of laws,
10 ordinances or regulations relating to certified interior design prac-
11 tices, shall reject or deny any plans or specifications for the sole 12 reason that they are stamped:

13 (a) with the seal of a certified interior designer registered in this 14 state and bearing the authorized facsimile of the signature of such 15 certified interior designer; or

16 (b) with the official seal and authorized facsimile of the signature 17 of a certified interior designer not a resident of this state, but who 18 is legally qualified to practice as such in his or her own state or 19 country, provided that such person holds a limited permit issued by the 20 department, and provided further that the plans or specifications are 21 accompanied by and have attached thereto written authorization issued by 22 the department for the specific project.

23 3. To all plans, specifications, construction documents and instru-24 ments of service to which the seal of a certified interior designer has 25 been applied, there shall also be applied a stamp with appropriate word-26 ing, warning that it is a violation of this law for any person, unless 27 he or she is acting under the direction of a certified interior design-
28 er, to alter them in any way. If an item bearing the seal of a certified 29 interior designer is altered, the altering certified interior designer 30 shall affix to the item his or her seal and the notion "altered by" 31 followed with his or her signature and the date of such alteration, and 32 a specific description of the alteration.

33 4. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize a 34 certified interior designer to submit plans, specifications, 35 construction documents and instruments of service that are outside of 36 the definition of practice of interior design as described in section 37 eighty-three hundred three of this article.

38 5. Nothing contained in article one hundred forty-five or article one 39 hundred forty-seven of this title shall be construed to prevent a certi-
40 fied interior designer from submitting plans, specifications, 41 construction documents and instruments of service that are within the 42 definition of practice of interior design, as described in section 43 eighty-three hundred three of this article, to any official of this 44 state or of any county, city, town or village.

45 § 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 8302-a to 46 read as follows:

47 § 8302-a. Continuing education; renewal or restoration of the title
48 "certified interior designer". 1. An applicant for renewal of registra-
49 tion for certification to use the title "certified interior designer"
50 shall submit proof, as determined by the board, of having completed
51 twenty-four continuing education units from a board approved continuing 52 education provider during the term of their registration. An applicant 53 shall prove completion of continuing education units by submitting with 54 the renewal application the following information:

55 (a) Official documentation from a continuing education unit provider
56 that shall include:

1 (i) The name and address of the continuing education unit provider;
2 (ii) The date or dates on which the applicant attended the provider's 3 continuing education unit course;

4 (iii) The name of the continuing education unit and a description of 5 the subject matter covered; and

6 (iv) The hours of credit earned by the applicant due to their success-7 ful completion of the continuing education unit; and

8 (b) Satisfactory documentation that a combined total of at least 9 sixteen continuing education unit's addressed one or more of the follow-
10 ing subject matters:

11 (i) The health, wellness or overall consumer protection of building
12 occupants;

13 (ii) Public safety, with an emphasis on the impact and application of 14 the state, county, and local building codes, especially those pertaining 15 to fire safety within interior spaces of a building and/or structure; 16 and

17 (iii) The impact and application of the Americans with Disabilities
18 Act and New York state, county, and local accessibility standards, ordi-19 nances, laws, and regulations pertaining to accessibility.

20 2. An individual with an expired registration of more than one year
21 seeking to restore such registration shall be required to meet the same 22 continuing education requirements as individuals applying for renewal of 23 their registration provided in subdivision one of this section.

24 3. The board may approve only those continuing education providers
25 that have substantial experience and an established record of offering 26 and providing continuing education unit course offerings on an annual 27 basis that contribute to individuals' growth of professional competence
28 in the practice of interior design as it pertains to upholding health, 29 safety and welfare within interior spaces of a building or structure.

30 4. (a) The board may, in its discretion, grant extensions of no more 31 than one year for renewal after expiration of an applicant's registra-32 tion, if such applicant's failure to submit proof of completion of 33 required continuing education unit's was due to an emergency or hardship 34 including, but not limited to:

35 (i) Serious and protracted illness of the applicant;

36 (ii) The death or serious and protracted illness of a member of the 37 applicant's immediate family; or

38 (iii) The applicant and or the applicant's spouse being on extended 39 active military duty.

40 (b) An extension granted under this subdivision shall not relieve a 41 certified interior designer from complying with the continuing education 42 requirements to renew their registration provided for in this section.

43 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.
