location in internet protocol or a successor protocol; utilizes a broadband connection at the user's location; and permits a user to receive a call that originates on the public switched telephone network and to terminate a call to the public switched telephone network.

- 5 3. Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, an application 6 may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the 7 state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction to issue an 8 injunction, and upon notice to the defendant, to immediately enjoin and 9 restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to 10 the satisfaction of the court or justice, by a preponderance of the 11 evidence, that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section an injunction may be issued by such court or justice enjoining and 12 restraining any further violation, without requiring proof that any 13 14 person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. The court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of 15 16 subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules. In addition to any such allowances, the court may 17 direct restitution to any victim upon a showing of damages by a prepon-18 19 derance of the evidence. In addition to any such restitution, whenever 20 the court shall determine that a violation of this section has occurred, 21 the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars per call, up to a total aggregate amount of not more than one 22 hundred thousand dollars, for all calls placed in violation of this 23 section within a continuous seventy-two hour period. In connection with 24 25 any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to 26 take proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue 27 subpoenas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules.
  - 4. Subdivision three of this section does not create, and is not intended to create, any right of action against a telecommunications service provider or VoIP service provider whose service, including caller identification service, is used by a business entity to transmit or display false caller identification information in violation of this section.
  - 5. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any member of a law enforcement unit acting within the scope of his or her assigned duties or to a court order that specifically authorizes the use of caller identification manipulation.
  - § 2. Paragraph 6 of subdivision (a) of section 8303 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 530 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:
  - 6. to the plaintiffs in an action or proceeding brought by the [attorney general] under [article] article twenty-two, twenty-two-A, twenty-three-A or thirty-three or section three hundred nine-ty-one-b, three hundred ninety-nine-ppp, or five hundred twenty-a of the general business law, or under subdivision twelve of section sixty-three of the executive law, or under article twenty-three of the arts and cultural affairs law, or in an action or proceeding brought by the [attorney-general] attorney general under applicable statutes to dissolve a corporation or for usurpation of public office, or unlawful exercise of franchise or of corporate right, a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars against each defendant.
- § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.
