person less than seventeen years old and the person being twenty-one 1 years old or more has authority, perceived authority, a position of 3 trust, supervisory or disciplinary power over the person less than 4 seventeen years old by virtue of his or her legal, professional, occupa-5 tional or vocational status; or (iii) a person has engaged in conduct 6 set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision with a person under twenty-one years of age who has a handicapping condition, as defined in 7 8 section forty-four hundred one of the education law and who is entitled 9 to residential care due to such handicapping condition.

10 (b) Any person, in his or her official or professional supervisory capacity with a nonprofit or for-profit organization, shall be required 11 to report or cause a report to be made to an appropriate law enforcement 12 13 agency when they have reasonable cause to believe that a person over 14 whom he or she regularly exercises supervisory authority has engaged in conduct set forth under this paragraph provided that the person alleged 15 16 to have engaged in such conduct is employed by, contracted by, or requ-17 larly has unsupervised access to a child or children as part of the employment, contract, or formal role with the organization, paid or 18 19 unpaid. Conduct which requires reporting under this article shall 20 include instances where: (i) a person being eighteen years old or more 21 has engaged in conduct set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision with a person less than fourteen years old; or (ii) a person being twen-22 ty-one years old or more has engaged in conduct set forth in paragraph 23 (c) of this subdivision with a person less than seventeen years old and 24 the person being twenty-one years old or more has authority, perceived 25 26 authority, a position of trust, supervisory or disciplinary power over 27 the person less than seventeen years old by virtue of his or her legal, professional, occupational, organizational, or vocational status; or 28 (iii) a person has engaged in conduct set forth in paragraph (c) of this 29 30 subdivision with a person under twenty-one years of age who has a handi-31 capping condition, as defined in section forty-four hundred one of the 32 education law and who is entitled to residential care due to such handi-33 capping condition.

- (c) The following conduct, if committed by a person defined in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision shall, for the purposes of this section, constitute child abuse and shall require a report:
- (i) intentionally or recklessly inflicting physical injury, serious 38 physical injury or death, or
- 39 (ii) intentionally or recklessly engaging in conduct which creates a 40 substantial risk of such physical injury, serious physical injury or 41 death, or
- 42 (iii) committing or attempting to commit against a child the crime of 43 disseminating indecent materials to minors pursuant to article two hundred thirty-five of the penal law, or 44
  - (iv) engaging in any conduct prohibited by article one hundred thirty or two hundred sixty-three of the penal law.
    - (d) For the purposes of this section the term:

 tution, governmental entity other than the federal government, and any other individual or group engaged in a trade, occupation, enterprise, governmental function, charitable function, or similar activity in this state whether or not the entity is operated as a nonprofit or for-profit entity.

- (e) Unless the person confessing or confiding waives the privilege, a member of the clergy, or other minister of any religion or duly accredited Christian Science practitioner, shall not be required to make a report as required by paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision if the confession or confidence was made to him or her in his or her professional character as spiritual advisor.
- (f) When a member of the clergy has reasonable cause to suspect that conduct described under this section has occurred based upon any information received other than through a confession or confidence made pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision, then such member of the clergy shall promptly make a report as required by paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision notwithstanding the fact that he or she may have also received a report of abuse or maltreatment through a confession or confidence made pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision.
- (g) The provisions of paragraph (e) of this subdivision shall not be deemed to exempt a member of the clergy from any other requirements of law to prevent the perpetrator from committing additional acts of abuse.
- (h) For the purposes of this subdivision the term "member of the clergy" shall have the same definition as the term "clergyman" as set forth in section two of the religious corporations law and shall also include any person responsible for supervising a member of the clergy of a religious institution or responsible for the administration of a religious institution.
- (i) For the purposes of this subdivision the term "religious institution" shall mean a religious corporation created to enable its members to meet for divine worship or other religious observances or a congregation, society, or other assemblage of persons who are accustomed to statedly meet for divine worship or other religious observances, without having been incorporated for that purpose, as provided in section two of the religious corporations law.
- 2. Reports of suspected child abuse shall be made immediately by telephone or by telephone facsimile on a form supplied by the commissioner of the office of children and family services to an appropriate law enforcement agency. Such telephone reports shall be followed by a report in writing within twenty-four hours after such oral report. The provisions of article twenty-three-B of the education law shall apply when allegations of abuse or maltreatment by an employee or volunteer under such article are made in an educational setting. Nothing in this subdivision shall require a person or official required to report cases of suspected child abuse to additionally notify the statewide register of child abuse and maltreatment unless the relationship of the victim to the alleged perpetrator is in doubt. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, law enforcement agency shall not include any child protective service or any society for the prevention of cruelty to children as such terms are defined in section four hundred twenty-three of this article.
- § 429-b. Penalties for failure to report. 1. Any person required by this title to report a case of suspected child abuse who willfully fails to do so shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

- Any person required by this title to report a case of suspected 1 2 child abuse who knowingly and willfully fails to do so shall be civilly 3 liable for the damages proximately caused by such failure.
  - § 429-c. Immunity from liability. 1. Any person who in good faith makes a report of allegations of child abuse as required by this title, including those who in good faith make a report to the wrong recipient, shall have immunity from criminal liability which might otherwise result by reason of such actions.
  - 2. Any person who reasonably and in good faith makes a report of allegations of child abuse as required by this title, shall have immunity from civil liability which might otherwise result by reason of such actions.
- § 429-d. Review of existing records for allegations that a child is an abused child; district attorney; penalty. The willful failure of an 14 individual defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section four hundred twenty-nine-a of this title to review existing records and information and report allegations contained therein, as provided by this section, shall be a class A misdemeanor.
- 19 § 2. Section 130.00 of the penal law is amended by adding two new 20 subdivisions 14 and 15 to read as follows:
- 14. "Position of authority" includes but is not limited to any person 22 who is a teacher, employer, babysitter, coach, or any other person who, no matter how brief, is at the time of the act:
  - (a) acting in the place of a parent and charged with any of a parent's rights, duties or responsibilities to a child, or
- 26 (b) a person who is charged with any duty or responsibility for the 27 health, welfare, or supervision of a child, either independently or 28 through another.
- 29 15. "Position of trust" includes but is not limited to any person who 30 is a teacher, employer, babysitter, coach or any other person who, by reason of his position, is able to exercise significant influence over a 31 32 child at the time of the act.
- 33 § 3. The commissioner of the office of children and family services shall review the reporting form used to report suspected child abuse 34 pursuant to section 429-a of the social services law, as added by 35 section one of this act, and, if necessary, shall revise such form to 36 make it appropriate for reporting to law enforcement agencies. 37
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 38 39 have become a law.
