AN ACT to amend the uniform justice court act, in relation to the location of the presiding justice in certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 106 of the uniform justice court act, as amended by section 1 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

2

1. A justice may hold court anywhere in the municipality including in the case of a town justice anywhere within a village wholly or partly contained within the town of which he is a justice regardless of whether or not said village has a village court and in the event two or more contiguous villages maintain offices in the same building, a village justice of any such village may hold court in such building, notwith-10 standing that the building is outside the boundaries of such village. A 11 town justice may hold court in an adjacent town providing such justice 12 has been elected or holds office pursuant to a plan established by 13 resolution which was adopted pursuant to the provisions of section one 14 hundred six-a of this article or the provisions of section one hundred six-b of this article. A justice may hold court in one or more municipalities that form a contiguous geographic area, including in a town and 16 17 one or more villages each of which is wholly or partly contained within such town, within the same county providing there is an agreement 18 19 between such municipalities pursuant to article [five-g] five-G of the 20 general municipal law to hold all court proceedings in any of the such 21 municipalities in a courtroom or other suitable facility open to the 22 public. For purposes of arraignments, appearance proceedings or pursu-23 ant to a warrant, a justice may preside anywhere in the county provided 24 that:
