2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 12, 2017

Introduced by Sen. HANNON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the family court act and the domestic relations law, in relation to the purchase or maintenance of a policy of disability insurance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The section heading and subdivision (b) of section 416 of 2 the family court act, as amended by chapter 624 of the laws of 2002, are 3 amended to read as follows:

4 Elements of support; provisions for accident, life, disability and 5 health insurance benefits.

6 (b) The court may also order a party to purchase, maintain, or assign 7 a policy of accident insurance or insurance on the life of either party 8 and designate in the case of life insurance, the person or persons on 9 whose behalf the petition is brought or in the case of accident insur-10 ance, the insured party as irrevocable beneficiaries during a period of 11 time fixed by the court. In addition, the court may also order an obli-
12 gor party to purchase or maintain a policy of disability insurance as a 13 means of ensuring continued support by an obligor party during a period
14 of time fixed by the court. The obligation to provide such insurance 15 shall cease upon the termination of such party's duty to provide 16 support.

17 § 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 8 of part B of section 236 of the 18 domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 275 of the laws of 1999,
19 is amended to read as follows:

20 a. In any matrimonial action the court may order a party to purchase, 21 maintain or assign a policy of insurance providing benefits for health 22 and hospital care and related services for either spouse or children of 23 the marriage not to exceed such period of time as such party shall be 24 obligated to provide maintenance, child support or make payments of a

1 distributive award. The court may also order a party to purchase, main-2 tain or assign a policy of accident insurance or insurance on the life
3 of either spouse, and to designate in the case of life insurance, either 4 spouse or children of the marriage, or in the case of accident insur-
5 ance, the insured spouse as irrevocable beneficiaries during a period of 6 time fixed by the court.

7 In addition, the court may also order an obli-
8 gor party to purchase or maintain a policy of disability insurance as a
9 means of ensuring continued support by an obligor party during a period
10 of time fixed by the court.

The obligation to provide such insurance
11 shall cease upon the termination of the spouse's duty to provide mainte-12 nance, child support or a distributive award. A copy of such order shall 13 be served, by registered mail, on the home office of the insurer speci-
14 fying the name and mailing address of the spouse or children, provided 15 that failure to so serve the insurer shall not affect the validity of the order.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-17 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
