Introduced by Sens. ORTT, FUNKE, LARKIN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to safety in active work zones

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding four new sections 120.65, 120.66, 125.65 and 125.70 to read as follows:

§ 120.65 Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree.

1. A person is guilty of vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree when, with criminal negligence, he or she:

a. enters or intrudes into an active work zone while operating a motor vehicle; and

b. such entry or intrusion causes serious physical injury to another person.

2. For purposes of this section the term "active work zone" shall mean the physical area on a public highway, street or private road where construction, maintenance or utility work is being conducted, which area is properly designated to be an active work zone by signs, cones and/or other traffic control devices and where workers are physically present.

Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree is a class E felony.

§ 120.66 Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the first degree.

1. A person is guilty of vehicular assault in an active work zone in the first degree when he or she recklessly:

a. enters or intrudes into an active work zone while operating a motor vehicle; and

b. such entry or intrusion causes serious physical injury to another person.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
