STATE OF NEW YORK

2581

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 13, 2017

Introduced by Sen. HELMING -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the state law, in relation to making English the official language of New York state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The state law is amended by adding a new article 9 to read 2 as follows:

3	ARTICLE 9
4	OFFICIAL STATE LANGUAGE
5	Section 130. Legislative findings and intent.
б	131. Short title.
7	132. Official state language.
8	§ 130. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature hereby finds
9	that, the state is comprised of individuals from many ethnic, cultural,
10	and linguistic backgrounds, and continues to benefit from this rich
11	diversity. Throughout the history of New York and the United States, the
12	common thread binding individuals of differing backgrounds has been the
13	English language. Command of the English language is necessary to
14	participate in and take full advantage of the opportunities afforded by
15	American life. Absent a rudimentary command of the English language,
16	citizens of this state are not able to make their voices heard in the
17	legislative process, effectively exercise their right to vote, or fully
18	understand the rights afforded them by the United States and New York
19	Constitutions. Such citizens also have a more difficult time finding
20	gainful employment, affordable housing, health insurance, and otherwise
21	availing themselves of the full benefits of American life for themselves
22	and their families.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD05911-01-7

S. 2581

1	§ 131. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the
2	"New York state English language empowerment act".
3	§ 132. Official state language. English shall be the official language
4	of the government of the state of New York. 1. The state of New York
5	shall conduct all official business of this state in English. All offi-
6	cial documents, regulations, orders, and publications shall be printed
7	in English and all official programs, meetings, transactions, and
8	actions conducted by or on behalf of this state and all its political
9	subdivisions shall be in English.
10	2. a. Other languages may be used by government officials, and in
11	official documents, whenever necessary to:
12^{11}	(i) protect the health, safety, or liberty of any citizen;
13	(ii) teach or study other languages;
14	(iii) protect the rights of criminal defendants or the victims of
15	crime;
16	(iv) promote trade, tourism, or commerce;
17	(v) facilitate activities pertaining to the compilation of any census;
18	(vi) comply with the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education
19	Act;
20	(vii) use proper names, terms of art, or phrases from language other
21	than English; or
22	(viii) comply with the Constitution and laws of the United States of
23	America, or the state constitution.
24	b. Except in exigent circumstances, when an official government docu-
25	ment is translated into any language other than English under this
26	section, an English translation will also be provided in the same docu-
27	ment, appearing in such a manner as to afford the reader the opportunity
27 28	ment, appearing in such a manner as to afford the reader the opportunity to observe the English translation of all phrases used.
28	to observe the English translation of all phrases used.
28 29	to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to:
28 29 30	to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or
28 29 30 31	to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or
28 29 30 31 32	to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose;
28 29 30 31 32 33	to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a
28 29 30 31 32 33 34	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English;</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language;</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state;</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose: b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their own provision to communicate with an official government agent or enti- </pre>
$\begin{array}{c} 28\\ 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 445\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\end{array}$	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their own provision to communicate with an official government agent or enti- ty.</pre>
$\begin{array}{c} 28\\ 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 445\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\\ 49\end{array}$	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their own provision to communicate with an official government agent or enti- ty. 4. As used in this section, "official" means any government action or </pre>
$\begin{array}{c} 28\\ 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 39\\ 41\\ 42\\ 44\\ 45\\ 46\\ 47\\ 49\\ 50\\ \end{array}$	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their own provision to communicate with an official government agent or enti- ty. 4. As used in this section, "official" means any government action or document that binds the government, is required by law, or is authorized </pre>
$\begin{array}{c} 28\\ 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 445\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\\ 49\\ \end{array}$	<pre>to observe the English translation of all phrases used. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: a. diminish the usage of, prevent the study or development of, or discourage the use of, any Native American language in any context or for any purpose; b. prohibit any elected official from speaking to any person in a language other than English while campaigning or providing constituent services, although such officials are encouraged to use English as much as possible to promote fluency in English; c. disparage any language or discourage any person from learning or using any language; d. prohibit informal and nonbinding translations or communications among or between representatives of government and other persons if this activity does not affect or impair supervision, management, conduct or execution of official actions and if the representatives of government make clear that these translations or communications are unofficial and are not binding on the state or any political subdivision of the state; or e. prohibit individuals from utilizing translation methods of their own provision to communicate with an official government agent or enti- ty. 4. As used in this section, "official" means any government action or </pre>