AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to expanding the duties of the office of children and family services concerning lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender runaway and homeless youth

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 532-e of the executive law, as amended by chapter
2 182 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:
3 § 532-e. Powers and duties of the office of children and family
4 services. The office of children and family services shall: [~~a~~] 1.
5 visit, inspect and make periodic reports on the operation and adequacy 6 of approved runaway programs and transitional independent living support 7 programs;
8 [~~b~~] 2. certify residential facilities providing care to runaway 9 and/or homeless youth, provided, however, that no certification shall be 10 issued or renewed until it can be demonstrated that a program operated 11 pursuant to this article has consistent with appropriate collective 12 bargaining agreements and applicable provisions of the civil service 13 law, developed and implemented a procedure for reviewing and evaluating 14 the backgrounds of and the information supplied by any person applying 15 to be an employee, volunteer or consultant, which shall include but not 16 be limited to the following requirements: that the applicants set forth 17 his or her employment history, provide personal and employment refer-18 ences and sign a sworn statement indicating whether the applicant, to 19 the best of his or her knowledge, has ever been convicted of a crime in 20 this state or any other jurisdiction;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

21 lations promulgated by the office. Such training shall require all 22 employees of such residential facilities to receive instruction as spec-
23 ified by the office in the regulations and shall, at a minimum, include 24 instruction in issues pertaining to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and trans-25 gender youth with particular emphasis on:

26 (a) appropriate terminology;

27 (b) particular challenges for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender 28 runaway and homeless youth, including why lesbian, gay, bisexual, and 29 transgender youth are disproportionately homeless;

30 (c) how to address homophobia or transphobia from other youth at the 31 shelter;

32 (d) confidentiality in the cases of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and trans-33 gender youth; and

34 (e) how to address the families of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and trans-
35 gender youth; and

36 8. in conjunction with the commissioner of education, develop and 37 annually review a plan to ensure coordination and access to education
38 for homeless children, in accordance with the provisions of section 39 thirty-two hundred nine of the education law, and monitor compliance of 40 residential programs for runaway and homeless youth with such plan.

41 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
42 ing the date upon which it shall have become a law.
