IN SENATE

January 19, 2017

Introduced by Sen. RITCHIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to reciprocity for pistol permit applications for military personnel

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 4-a of section 400.00 of the penal law, as 1 added by chapter 233 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows: 2 4-a. Processing of license applications. Applications for licenses 3 4 shall be accepted for processing by the licensing officer at the time of 5 presentment. Except upon written notice to the applicant specifically stating the reasons for any delay, in each case the licensing officer б 7 shall act upon any application for a license pursuant to this section 8 within six months of the date of presentment of such an application to 9 the appropriate authority. Such delay may only be for good cause and with respect to the applicant. In acting upon an application, the 10 licensing officer shall either deny the application for reasons specif-11 ically and concisely stated in writing or grant the application and 12 issue the license applied for. An application for a license pursuant to 13 14 this section for any active member of the armed forces of the United 15 States shall be acted upon by the licensing officer within sixty days of 16 the date of submission of such an application to the appropriate authority provided such active member of the armed forces is duly licensed to 17 carry a pistol or firearm by another jurisdiction within the United 18 States. Nothing shall proscribe the issuing of a license pursuant to 19 20 this section so long as the applicant who is an active member of the 21 armed forces, submits the appropriate documentation accompanying the 22 application and submits proof of a previously obtained license issued by another state. 23 24 S 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 400.15 to read

25 as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
