18 § 460-h. Enforcement. 1. Upon any violation of this article, an appli-19 cation may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of 20 the state to a court having jurisdiction to issue an injunction, and 21 upon notice to the respondent of not fewer than five days, to enjoin and 22 restrain the continuance of the violation. If it shall appear to the 23 satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, 24 violated this article, an injunction may be issued by such court or 25 justice, enjoining and restraining any further violation, without 26 requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged 27 thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the 28 attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of 29 section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules,
30 and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a 32 penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation.

33 2. A person claiming to be aggrieved by any violation of this article 34 by an immigration provider may bring a civil action for injunctive
35 relief, damages or both. The court shall grant a prevailing plaintiff
36 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Any recovery or proceeding in a 37 civil action shall not preclude an action by the attorney general or 38 district attorney to pursue criminal charges against an immigration
39 provider. Minimal recovery for the plaintiff shall be five thousand 40 dollars.

41 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-42 ing the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however, 43 that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any 44 rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its 45 effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on 46 or before such effective date.
