§ 168-w. Electronic monitoring of certain sex offenders. 1. Any sex offender having been convicted of rape of a child as defined in section 130.36, criminal sexual act against a child as defined in section 130.51, aggravated sexual abuse of a child as defined in section 130.71 or aggravated course of sexual conduct against a child as defined in

1 section 130.81 of the penal law shall be placed on electronic monitoring 2 for life.

3 2. The division shall establish a system of active electronic monitor-4 ing that identifies the location of a sex offender required to be moni-
5 tored pursuant to subdivision one of this section and that can produce, 6 upon request, reports or records of the sex offender's presence near or 7 within a crime scene or prohibited area or the sex offender's departure 8 from specified geographic limitations.

9 3. The division shall also promulgate regulations implementing the 10 imposition and collection of fees related to electronic monitoring 11 pursuant to this section. Such regulations shall utilize a means test 12 based on two hundred percent of the federal poverty guidelines promul-
13 gated annually by the federal department of health and human services 14 and if the sex offender falls below such percentage then no fee shall be 15 charged, and earnings above such percentage shall be considered on a 16 sliding scale. Such regulations shall also provide that the division of 17 parole consider any additional test or indicia that demonstrates the 18 inability of the sex offender to pay such fees. Employees of the divi-
19 sion of parole shall be prohibited from collecting electronic monitoring 20 related fees.

21 4. Any sex offender required to be electronically monitored pursuant 22 to the provisions of this section who violates such requirement shall be 23 guilty of a class E felony upon conviction for the first offense, and 24 upon conviction for a second or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a
25 class D felony. Any such violation may also be the basis for revocation 26 of parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive 27 law.

28 § 13. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 29 offenses committed on or after such effective date; furthermore all 30 offenses committed prior to such effective date shall be governed by the 31 provisions of law in effect immediately before such date.
