tionally and economically challenged communities as referred to in this section as educational opportunity centers.

- 2. Such educational opportunity centers shall be managed and supervised by the state university and shall provide programs and services that include, but are not limited to:
- (a) academic programs leading to and increasing persistence in higher education;
- (b) vocational programs leading to career pathways, gainful employment and self-sufficiency;
 - (c) counseling and quidance services to enhance student retention;
- 11 (d) targeted services for business and industry to upgrade the skill 12 levels of emerging and incumbent workers such that they support 13 increased productivity and the creation and retention of job opportu-14 nities;
- 15 (e) collaboration with secondary schools to assist in the academic 16 preparation of at-risk youth;
 - (f) collaborative programs with colleges and universities to increase opportunities for center graduates for advanced placement and receipt of academic credits for academic work completed at such center;
 - (g) collaboration with other state and local agencies, workforce development boards and charitable organizations to meet emerging statewide priorities for serving the disadvantaged; and
 - (h) entrepreneurial training opportunities that may lead to community economic development.
 - 3. The state university shall formulate a plan and guidelines for the organization, development, coordination and operation of educational opportunity centers and may promulgate such rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Such plan shall include:
- (a) definition of academic and economic eligibility provided, however, that state residency be a minimum eligibility requirement;
- 32 (b) procedures for the selection of such students for admission to a
 33 center;
 - (c) program objectives including coordination with the university's long range mission and goals; and
 - (d) program evaluation and reporting.
- 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the employees 37 of the educational opportunity centers operated in cooperation with the 38 city university of New York and/or a college within the city university 39 of New York shall be employees of the city university of New York and 40 41 shall retain their respective bargaining unit representation. Nothing 42 in this section shall be deemed to waive or impair any rights or bene-43 fits of employees of the city university of New York that otherwise 44 would be available to them pursuant to the terms of agreements between 45 the certified representatives of such employees and the city university 46 of New York pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law.
- § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
