Introduced by Sen. GOLDEN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishment of a credit for the purchase and installation of a security camera system

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 52 to read as follows:

3 52. Credit for purchase and installation of a security camera system.

4 (a) Allowance of credit. A property owner subject to tax under this
5 article shall be allowed a one-time credit against such tax for quali-
6 fied security camera system costs on a property located in New York
7 state. The credit shall equal fifty percent of qualified security
8 camera costs up to one thousand dollars. The credit will be allowed in 9 the taxable year that qualifying security camera system costs are paid,
10 and the property owner may claim a credit for such costs under only one 11 article of this chapter.

12 (b) Definition. "Qualifying security camera system costs" shall mean
13 camera recording technology, corresponding access and controls equipment
14 and labor costs properly allocable to assembly and original installation
15 not intended or utilized for broadcast, publishing or public dissem-16 ination as such terms are generally described in section 250.40 of the 17 penal law. Such camera system shall be capable of recording and storing 18 footage for a minimum of forty-eight hours.

19 (c) The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year may 20 not reduce the tax due for that year to less than the amount prescribed 21 in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this 22 article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision 23 for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, or if the taxpayer 24 otherwise pays tax based on the fixed dollar minimum amount, any amount

1 of credit thus not deductible in that taxable year will be treated as an 2 overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the 3 provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter.
4 Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thou-5 sand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest will be 6 paid thereon.

7 § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
8 (v) to read as follows:

9 (v) Credit for purchase and installation of a security camera system.

10 (1) Allowance of credit. A property owner subject to tax under this 11 article shall be allowed a one-time credit against such tax for quali-
12 fied security camera system costs on a property located in New York
13 state. The credit shall equal fifty percent of the qualified security
14 camera costs up to one thousand dollars. The credit will be allowed in 15 the taxable year that qualifying security camera costs are paid, and the 16 property owner may claim a credit for such costs under only one article 17 of this chapter.

18 (2) Definition: "Qualifying security camera system costs" shall mean
19 camera recording technology, corresponding access and controls equipment
20 and labor costs properly allocable to assembly and original installation
21 not intended or utilized for broadcast, publishing or public dissem-
22 ination as such terms are generally described in section 250.40 of the 23 penal law. Such camera system shall be capable of recording and storing 24 footage for a minimum of forty-eight hours.

25 (3) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowable under 26 this subsection for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such 27 year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credit-28 ed or refunded as provided in section six hundred eighty-six of this 29 article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

30 § 3. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 31 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliii) to read as 32 follows:

|  |   |
|--|---|
| 33 (xliii) credit for purchase  | Amount of credit under           |
| 34 and tax installation of a    | subdivision fifty-two of section |
