Introduced by Sens. RANZENHOFER, DeFRANCISCO, YOUNG -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to prohibiting the release of personal medical records or information without a warrant or express written authorization of the individual

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 400.00 of the penal law, as 2 amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:
3 4. Investigation. Before a license is issued or renewed, there shall 4 be an investigation of all statements required in the application by the 5 duly constituted police authorities of the locality where such applica-
6 tion is made, including but not limited to such records as may be acces-
7 sible to the division of state police or division of criminal justice
8 services pursuant to section 400.02 of this article. For that purpose, 9 the records of the appropriate office of the department of mental 10 hygiene concerning previous or present mental illness of the applicant 11 shall be available for inspection by the investigating officer of the 12 police authority. In order to ascertain any previous criminal record, 13 the investigating officer shall take the fingerprints and physical 14 descriptive data in quadruplicate of each individual by whom the appli-
15 cation is signed and verified. Two copies of such fingerprints shall be 16 taken on standard fingerprint cards eight inches square, and one copy
17 may be taken on a card supplied for that purpose by the federal bureau 18 of investigation; provided, however, that in the case of a corporate 19 applicant that has already been issued a dealer in firearms license and 20 seeks to operate a firearm dealership at a second or subsequent 21 location, the original fingerprints on file may be used to ascertain any 22 criminal record in the second or subsequent application unless any of 23 the corporate officers have changed since the prior application, in

1 which case the new corporate officer shall comply with procedures
2 governing an initial application for such license. When completed, one 3 standard card shall be forwarded to and retained by the division of 4 criminal justice services in the executive department, at Albany. A 5 search of the files of such division and written notification of the 6 results of the search to the investigating officer shall be made without 7 unnecessary delay. Thereafter, such division shall notify the licensing
8 officer and the executive department, division of state police, Albany, 9 of any criminal record of the applicant filed therein subsequent to the 10 search of its files. A second standard card, or the one supplied by the 11 federal bureau of investigation, as the case may be, shall be forwarded
12 to that bureau at Washington with a request that the files of the bureau 13 be searched and notification of the results of the search be made to the 14 investigating police authority. Of the remaining two fingerprint cards, 15 one shall be filed with the executive department, division of state 16 police, Albany, within ten days after issuance of the license, and the 17 other remain on file with the investigating police authority. No such 18 fingerprints may be inspected by any person other than a peace officer, 19 who is acting pursuant to his special duties, or a police officer,
20 except on order of a judge or justice of a court of record either upon 21 notice to the licensee or without notice, as the judge or justice may 22 deem appropriate. Upon completion of the investigation, the police 23 authority shall report the results to the licensing officer without 24 unnecessary delay. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 25 contrary neither the state police, the division of criminal justice 26 services, nor any other law enforcement agency or employee thereof shall 27 be permitted to access personal medical records and other medical infor-28 mation other than records required to be provided by the department of 29 mental hygiene without a properly issued warrant, or the express writ-
30 ten, notarized permission of the individual whose information is sought.

31 § 2. Section 400.02 of the penal law, as added by chapter 1 of the 32 laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

33 § 400.02 Statewide license and record database.

34 1. There shall be a statewide license and record database which shall 35 be created and maintained by the division of state police the cost of 36 which shall not be borne by any municipality. Records assembled or 37 collected for purposes of inclusion in such database shall not be 38 subject to disclosure pursuant to article six of the public officers
39 law. Records containing granted license applications shall be period-40 ically checked by the division of criminal justice services against 41 criminal conviction, mental health, and all other records as are neces-
42 sary to determine their continued accuracy as well as whether an indi-
43 vidual is no longer a valid license holder. The division of criminal 44 justice services shall also check pending applications made pursuant to 45 this article against such records to determine whether a license may be 46 granted. All state agencies shall cooperate with the division of crimi-47 nal justice services, as otherwise authorized by law, in making their 48 records available for such checks. The division of criminal justice
49 services, upon determining that an individual is ineligible to possess a 50 license, or is no longer a valid license holder, shall notify the appli-
51 cable licensing official of such determination and such licensing offi-
52 cial shall not issue a license or revoke such license and any weapons 53 owned or possessed by such individual shall be removed consistent with 54 the provisions of subdivision eleven of section 400.00 of this article.
55 Local and state law enforcement shall have access to such database, as 56 otherwise authorized by law, in the performance of their duties. Records

1 assembled or collected for purposes of inclusion in the database estab-
2 lished by this section shall be released pursuant to a court order.

3 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary neither 4 the state police, the division of criminal justice services, nor any 5 other law enforcement agency or employee thereof shall be permitted to 6 access personal medical records and other medical information other than 7 records required to be provided by the department of mental hygiene
8 without a properly issued warrant, or the express written, notarized
9 permission of the individual whose information is sought.

10 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 400.00 of the penal law is amended by 11 adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

12 (c) (i) The application for a license to carry, possess, repair or 13 dispose of firearms, or the renewal thereof, pursuant to this section 14 shall not require the applicant to consent to the release of their 15 personal medical records and other medical information, other than 16 records required to be provided by the department of mental hygiene, as 17 a condition of receiving or retaining such license unless the investi-18 gating agency has a reasonable belief that a medical issue exists which 19 would justify the denial of a license pursuant to this section.

20 (ii) The state police, the division of criminal justice services, and 21 any other law enforcement agency or employee thereof may request a 22 consent from individuals for the release of their personal medical 23 records or other medical information where such law enforcement agency 24 has a reasonable belief that a medical issue exists which would justify 25 the suspension or revocation of a license issued pursuant to this 26 section.

27 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
