IN SENATE

January 27, 2017

Introduced by Sens. BAILEY, HAMILTON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to sealing records for certain proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 221.05 of the penal law, as added by chapter 360 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 221.05 Unlawful possession of marihuana.

4 A person is guilty of unlawful possession of marihuana when he know-5 ingly and unlawfully possesses marihuana.

Unlawful possession of marihuana is a violation punishable only by a 6 7 fine of not more than one hundred dollars. However, where the defendant has previously been convicted of [an offense] a crime defined in this 8 9 article, except a crime defined in section 221.10 of this article provided, however, that the record of such conviction does not demon-10 11 strate a conviction under subdivision two of such section 221.10, or 12 article 220 of this chapter, committed within the three years immediately preceding such violation, it shall be punishable (a) only by a fine 13 14 of not more than two hundred dollars, if the defendant was previously 15 convicted of one such offense committed during such period, and (b) by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars or a term of imprison-16 ment not in excess of fifteen days or both, if the defendant was previ-17 ously convicted of two such offenses committed during such period. 18

19 § 2. Paragraph (k) of subdivision 3 of section 160.50 of the criminal 20 procedure law, as added by chapter 835 of the laws of 1977 and as relet-21 tered by chapter 192 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows: 22 (k) (i) The accusatory instrument alleged a violation of article two 23 hundred twenty or section 240.36 of the penal law, prior to the taking 24 effect of article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law, or a 25 violation of article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law; (ii) the sole controlled substance involved is marijuana; and (iii) 1 the conviction was only for a violation or violations [7 and (iv) at least 2 3 three years have passed since the offense occurred] of section 221.10 of the penal law provided, however, that the record of such conviction does 4 5 not demonstrate a conviction under subdivision two of such section б 221.10, or for a petty offense or offenses. No defendant shall be 7 required or permitted to waive eligibility for sealing pursuant to this 8 paragraph as part of a plea of guilty, sentence or any agreement related 9 to a conviction for a violation of section 221.05 or section 221.10 of 10 the penal law and any such waiver shall be deemed void and wholly unen-11 forceable. § 3. Section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 12 13 three new subdivisions 5, 6 and 7 to read as follows: 14 5. A person convicted of a violation of section 221.10 of the penal law, other than a conviction after trial of, or plea of quilty to, 15 subdivision two of such section 221.10, prior to the effective date of 16 this subdivision may upon motion apply to the court in which such termi-17 nation occurred, upon not less than twenty days notice to the district 18 19 attorney, for an order granting to such person the relief set forth in 20 subdivision one of this section, and such order shall be granted unless 21 the district attorney demonstrates that the interests of justice require 22 otherwise. 6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law except as provided 23 in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section and paragraph (e) of 24 25 subdivision four of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the executive 26 law: (i) when the division of criminal justice services conducts a 27 search of its criminal history records, maintained pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the executive law, and 28 29 returns a report thereon, all references to a conviction for a violation 30 of section 221.10 of the penal law, other than a conviction after trial 31 of, or plea of quilty to, subdivision two of such section 221.10, shall 32 be excluded from such report; and (ii) the chief administrator of the 33 courts shall develop and promulgate rules as may be necessary to ensure 34 that no written or electronic report of a criminal history record search 35 conducted by the office of court administration contains information relating to a conviction for a violation of section 221.10 of the penal 36 law, other than a conviction after trial of, or plea of quilty to, 37 38 subdivision two of such section 221.10, unless such search is conducted solely for a bona fide research purpose, provided that such information, 39 if so disseminated, shall be disseminated in accordance with procedures 40 41 established by the chief administrator of the courts to assure the secu-42 rity and privacy of identification and information data, which shall 43 include the execution of an agreement which protects the confidentiality 44 of the information and reasonably protects against data linkage to indi-45 viduals. 46 (b) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to permit or 47 require the release, disclosure or other dissemination by the division 48 of criminal justice services or the office of court administration of 49 criminal history record information that has been sealed in accordance 50 with law. 51 7. A person convicted of a violation of section 221.05 of the penal law shall, on the effective date of this subdivision, have such 52 53 conviction immediately sealed pursuant to subdivision one of this 54 section if such conviction occurred less than three years prior to such 55 effective date.
