- AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to roofing contract provisions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 770 of the general business law is amended by 1 2 adding a new subdivision 8 to read as follows: 3 8. "Roofing contractor" means a person, firm or corporation, including 4 but not limited to, a person that is a nonresident roofing contractor, 5 independent contractor, day laborer or subcontractor engaged in the 6 business of roofing, gutter, downspout or siding services for a fee or 7 who offers to engage in or solicits roofing-related services, including 8 construction, installation, renovation, repair, maintenance, alteration 9 or waterproofing. This definition shall not include a person engaged in 10 the demolition of a structure or the cleanup of construction waste and 11 debris that contains roofing material, nor a person engaged in building a new home or housing development. "Roofing contractor" shall not 12 13 include: 14 (a) an owner or farm property owner who physically performs, or has 15 employees who perform repairing, remodeling, altering, converting, or 16 modernizing of, or adding to, their own dwelling or another structure 17 located on the property owned by the person without the assistance of a 18 roofing contractor. (b) any authorized employee or representative of the United States 19 2.0 government, the state of New York, or any political subdivision performing the repairing, remodeling, altering, converting, or modernizing of, 1 2 or adding to, government property. 3 § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 771-b 4 to read as follows: 5 § 771-b. Responsibilities of roofing contractors. 1. Every roofing б contractor shall enter into a written contract with an owner pursuant to 7 all of the provisions of section seven hundred seventy-one of this arti-8 cle before engaging in the business of roofing, gutter, downspout or 9 siding services for such owner. In addition, the contract entered into 10 under this section shall contain the name of the insurer, type of insur-11 ance coverage as required by subdivision nine of this section, and the 12 insurance policy limits obtained by the roofing contractor. 2. A roofing contractor shall not advertise or promise to pay or 13 14 rebate all or any portion of any insurance deductible as an inducement to the sale of goods or services. As used in this section, a promise to 15 16 pay or rebate includes granting any allowance or offering any discount against the fees to be charged or paying the insured or any person 17 directly or indirectly associated with the property any form of compen-18 19 sation, gift, prize, bonus, coupon, credit, referral fee, or other item 20 of monetary value for any reason. 21 3. An owner who has entered into a written contract with a roofing 22 contractor to provide goods or services to be paid under a property and casualty insurance policy may cancel the contract prior to midnight on 23 the third business day after the insured party has received written 24 notice from the insurer that all or any part of the claim or contract is 25 26 not a covered loss under the insurance policy. Cancellation occurs when 27 written notice of cancellation is given to the roofing contractor. Notice of cancellation, if given by registered or certified mail, shall 28 29 be deemed given when deposited in a mailbox properly addressed and post-30 age prepaid. Notice of cancellation shall be sufficient if it indicates the intention of the owner not to be bound. Notwithstanding the forego-31 ing, this subdivision shall not apply to a transaction in which the 32 33 owner has initiated the contact and the roofing contract is needed to meet a bona fide emergency of the owner, and the owner furnishes the 34 35 roofing contractor with a separate dated and signed personal statement 36 in the owner's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate 37 remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the 38 roofing contract within three business days. For the purposes of this 39 subdivision the term "owner" shall mean an owner or any representative 40 of an owner. 41 4. Within ten days after a contract referred to in subdivision three 42 of this section has been cancelled, the roofing contractor shall tender 43 to the owner any payments, partial payments, or deposits made and any note or other evidence of indebtedness. If, however, the roofing 44 45 contractor has performed any emergency services, acknowledged by the 46 owner in writing to be necessary to prevent damage to the premises, the 47 roofing contractor shall be entitled to the reasonable value of such services. Any provision in a contract referred to in this subdivision 48 that requires the payment of any fee for anything except emergency 49 services shall not be enforceable against the owner who has cancelled a 50 51 contract pursuant to this section. 5. A roofing contractor shall not require an owner to provide a depos-52 53 it for the work and materials. A roofing contractor shall not mandate 54 that a particular form of payment be made in order to commence performance of the home improvement. A roofing contractor may invoice for 55 56 payment of the materials portion of the project upon delivery of the materials to the owner of the property. The material cost must be 1 disclosed to the property owner in writing in advance of payment. A 2 roofing contractor may invoice the remainder of the project upon 3 4 successful completion of all contracted work. 5 6. A roofing contractor shall not abandon, or fail to perform, without б justification, any roofing contract, nor shall the roofing contractor deviate from or disregard plans or specifications in any material 7 8 respect without the consent of the owner. A roofing contractor shall 9 abide by the applicable building code for the jurisdiction where the 10 residential property is located. 7. A roofing contractor shall not fail to pay for materials or 11 services rendered in connection with a roofing contract where the 12 contractor has received sufficient funds as payment for the particular 13 14 contract for which the services or material were rendered or purchased. 8. A roofing contractor shall not perform the reporting, adjusting, or 15 16 negotiating a claim on behalf of the owner and shall not receive compen-17 sation for the referral to any entity that reports, adjusts or negotiates a claim on behalf of an owner. Nothing herein prevents a roofing 18 contractor from communicating with an insurance company representative 19 20 and sharing his or her technical knowledge when the insurer initiates 21 the communication. 22 9. (a) A roofing contractor shall provide to the owner adequate proof 23 of insurance of the types and amounts set forth in this subdivision: 24 (1) A certificate of workers' compensation covering all employees of 25 the roofing contractor. If the roofing contractor does not have any 26 employees, then the contractor must provide a certificate of attestation 27 exemption (CE-200) form from the workers' compensation board; and (2) Certificates of general liability and property damage insurance in 28 29 the amount of one hundred thousand dollars per person, three hundred 30 thousand dollars per occurrence, bodily injury; and fifty thousand 31 dollars for each occurrence and aggregate, property damage. 32 (b) The insurance requirements set forth in this subdivision shall 33 apply to roofing contracts performed in all political subdivisions that 34 do not contain any insurance requirements for such contracts.

35 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 36 it shall have become a law.
