49. Employment of New York national guard and reserve members wage tax 4 credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed 6 by this article, if it employs members of the New York national guard and reserves. Provided, however, such taxpayer shall comply with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, as found in section 4301 et seq. of title 18 of the United States Code.

(b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less 11 than the minimum amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. If, however, the amount of 14 credits allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such 16 taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand 18 eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon. 20

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding two new 32 subsections (ccc) and (hhh) to read as follows: 33

(ccc) Employment of New York national guard and reserve member credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article if they employ New York national guard and reserve members. Provided, however, they shall comply with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, as found in section 4301 et seq. of title 18 of the United States Code. The amount of the credit shall be fifteen hundred dollars for each national guard member or reservist employed.

(2) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under 42 43 this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for 44 such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six 45 hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest 46 47 shall be paid thereon.

(3) Carryover. If the amount of credit allowable under this subsection 49 for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess may be carried over to the following year or years, and may be 50 deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year or years. 51

52 (hhh) Employment of volunteer firefighters and EMS first responder 53 personnel wage credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be S. 400--A 3 allowed a credit, as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article if they employ volunteer firefighters and EMS first responder personnel. The amount of the credit shall be fifteen hundred dollars for each volunteer firefighter and EMS first responder employed.

- (2) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.
- 11 (3) Carryover. If the amount of credit allowable under this subsection 12 for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the 13 excess may be carried over to the following year or years, and may be 14 deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.
- 15 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 16 years beginning on and after January 1, 2020.
