AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to regulatory fines for small businesses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 170-c 2 to read as follows:

3 § 170-c. Regulatory fines for small businesses. 1. Notwithstanding 4 any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, upon an initial 5 violation of a state agency's rules or regulations, a small business
6 shall be afforded a cure period or other opportunity for ameliorative
7 action, the successful completion of which will prevent the imposition 8 of penalties on the party or parties subject to enforcement, unless the 9 agency determines that the violation directly affected public health or 10 safety. Upon such first violation, a state agency shall (a) provide the 11 small business with a copy of any applicable small business regulation 12 guides pursuant to section one hundred two-a of the state administrative 13 procedure act and any other helpful compliance information detailing the 14 agency's rules and regulations, or (b) hold an in-person meeting with 15 the small business to help assist such small business with compliance

1 with the agency's rules and regulations. The agency shall have the 2 discretion to determine the appropriate period of time to allow for such 3 ameliorative action to occur, provided such period is not less than 4 ninety days.

5 2. "Small business" as used in this section shall mean a business
6 which is resident in this state, independently owned and operated, not 7 dominant in its field and employs one hundred or less persons.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
