dollars ~~[or]~~ but in no case more than the annual tax liability imposed on the property. ~~[No such local law may be adopted unless, as originally adopted, it authorizes such rebate to be granted in accordance with this section for three consecutive fiscal years beginning with the fiscal year beginning on the first of July, two thousand three. No such rebate shall be granted by local law for any fiscal year beginning on or after the first of July, two thousand nine, unless the council of such city, in fixing the annual tax rates for any such fiscal year, shall have uniformly reduced such rates for all classes of property in order to produce real property tax relief among such classes of property in an amount not less than, in the aggregate, the aggregate amount of rebate paid in such fiscal year. No such local law implementing the provisions of this section, as amended by the chapter of the laws of two thousand seven which added this sentence, may be adopted unless, as originally adopted, such local law authorizes such rebate to be granted in accordance with this section for three consecutive fiscal years beginning with the fiscal year beginning on the first of July, two thousand six.]~~ Any rebate authorized by local law in accordance with this section shall be paid in the fiscal year following the fiscal year for which the rebate is granted. ~~[If, with respect to the fiscal year of such city beginning on the first of July, two thousand eight and ending on the thirtieth of June, two thousand nine, an increase in average real property tax rates would otherwise be necessary in the resolution of such city council fixing real property tax rates for such fiscal year pursuant to the charter of such city, then the rebate to be paid for such fiscal year shall be reduced or eliminated as follows: where the sum to be raised by such increase is less than seven hundred fifty million dollars, then such rebate shall be reduced by fifty cents for each dollar of increase, and where the sum to be raised by such increase is seven hundred fifty million dollars or more, then such rebate shall be eliminated. The determination of the reduction or elimination of such rebate shall be set forth in such resolution after consultation with the department of finance of such city and shall take effect upon the final adoption of such resolution.]~~ Such rebate shall be paid to an owner or tenant-stockholder who, as of the date the application provided for in subdivision four of this section is due, owns a one, two ~~[or]~~, three, four, five or six family residence or a dwelling unit in residential property held in the condominium or cooperative form of ownership that is the owner or tenant-stockholder's primary residence and meets all other eligibility requirements of this section, unless the local legislative body provides by local law that only owners or tenant-stockholders of a subset of those property types are eligible to be paid the rebate. The local legislative body may by local law restrict eligibility on the basis of whether an owner or tenant-stockholder is receiving a particular other benefit pursuant to this chapter or the private housing finance law. ~~[Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections four hundred twenty-one a, four hundred twenty-one b or four hundred twenty-one g of this title, an owner or tenant-stockholder whose property is receiving benefits pursuant to such sections shall not be prohibited from receiving a rebate pursuant to this section if such owner or tenant stockholder is otherwise eligible to receive such rebate. Tenant stockholders of dwelling units in a cooperative apartment corporation incorporated as a mutual company pursuant to article two, four, five or eleven of the private housing finance law shall not be entitled to the rebate authorized by this section.]~~ Such rebate shall be paid by the commissioner of

1 finance to eligible owners or tenant-stockholders in accordance with 2 rules promulgated by the commissioner of finance.

3 § 3. Subparagraph 1 of paragraph a of subdivision 2 of section 467-e

11 § 4. Subparagraph 3 of paragraph a of subdivision 2 of section 467-e
12 of the real property tax law, as added by section 1 of part V of chapter 13 60 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:
