

STATE OF NEW YORK

432--A

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 4, 2017

Introduced by Sen. PERALTA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the penal law, in relation to preventing the sale of firearms, rifles, and shotguns to criminals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

2 1. Firearms, rifles and shotguns are used to kill over 30,000 individuals in the United States every year, including 1,000 individuals in New York state alone. Additionally, there are 100,000 non-fatal injuries across the country. The federal government has largely ignored this public health crisis and has left it up to state and local governments to protect its citizens. Firearm violence also costs billions of dollars and causes incalculable emotional damage, devastating families and communities throughout the country. Therefore, the state of New York has a strong interest in reducing violence and crimes that involve the use of firearms and the illegal trafficking of firearms. Illegal guns obtained throughout the state end up in the hands of criminals, youth and violent individuals who use them to threaten, maim and kill.

15 2. There is a thriving underground market for illegal firearms, largely driven by demand from drug gangs and other criminals. A highly efficient and continuous business practice exists in which firearms are moved from legal manufacture and sale to prohibited purchasers, making them illegal firearms. According to a recent report of the New York state attorney general, 52,915 crime guns were recovered by law enforcement in New York between 2010-2015. Target on Trafficking, New York Crime Gun Analysis, October 2016 ("2016 AG Report"). Of these crime

1 guns, 13,188 or 24.9% were long guns. Outside New York City, long guns
2 are sold without a permit. The 2016 AG Report further found that 90% of 3 the crime guns recovered were recovered in seven distinct markets: New 4 York City, the lower Hudson Valley (including the cities of Yonkers, 5 White Plains, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie), the Capital Region (including 6 Albany, Troy and Schenectady), Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo. 74% of 7 the crime guns recovered were from out of state. Yet a significant 8 portion of guns involved in crimes upstate originate within the state.
9 For example, according to the 2016 AG Report, 41% of crime guns in the 10 Buffalo area and 56% of crime guns in the Rochester area originated 11 within New York state.

12 3. Youth are particularly at risk of being killed with guns. Accord-
13 ing to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, in 2010 alone, 14 116 children and teens (under the age of 19) died from gun violence in 15 New York state.

16 4. A substantial portion of illegal firearms are diverted to the ille-
17 gal market through licensed gun dealers. Rogue gun dealers play a key 18 role in this market. These rogue dealers funnel guns to the illegal 19 market through a variety of channels. One of the most common means is to 20 allow "straw purchases". A straw purchase occurs when a person purchases 21 a gun on behalf of a prohibited person. In 2000, the Bureau of Alcohol, 22 Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) conducted an investigation of 23 gun trafficking from July 1996 to December 1998 and found that almost 24 26,000 trafficked firearms were associated with investigations in which 25 there was a straw purchaser. Almost 50% of all trafficking investi-
26 gations involved straw purchasers, with an average of 37 firearms traf-27 ficked per investigation. Another issue, according to a 2008 report by 28 Mayors Against Illegal Guns, Inside Straw Purchasing: How Criminals Get 29 Guns Illegally, is that many traffickers return to the same store again 30 and again once they have identified it as one in which they can make 31 straw purchases easily. According to the ATF, 1% of gun dealers are the 32 source of almost 60% of crime guns.

33 5. Although most gun dealers operate their businesses legally and 34 responsibly, some gun dealers who are corrupt or maintain shoddy record-35 keeping practices flood the streets with illegal weapons as a result of 36 their unrestricted access to new gun inventory and the unwillingness of 37 gun manufacturers to terminate their supply to these rogue dealers.
38 Current federal and state regulation has not curbed the business prac-39 tice of illegal gun dealers. According to a 2004 study by Americans for 40 Gun Safety, of the 120 worst gun dealers in the country, namely those 41 dealers with an average of 500 crime guns traced to them, 96 were still 42 in operation.

43 6. Moreover, this problem is not limited to unlicensed sellers, and 44 clearly includes federal firearms licensees (FFLs). Indeed, although 45 FFLs were involved in under 10% of the trafficking investigations under-46 taken by ATF, they were associated with the largest number of diverted 47 firearms--over 40,000 guns, which is nearly half of the total number of 48 trafficked firearms documented during the two-year period of the ATF's 49 investigation. Additionally, a 2010 report by Mayors Against Illegal 50 Guns indicated that several states which allow state authorities to 51 supplement the federal ATF inspection with routine inspections provide 52 law enforcement with more opportunities to uncover dealers in violation 53 of the law. These inspections also help identify dealers who exercise 54 lax oversight over their inventory and may lead to improved compliance 55 with federal, state, and local laws.

7. Current state law governing firearm dealers is inadequate to prevent the diversion of firearms to the illegal marketplace. Additional protections that are needed include, but are not limited to, better gun dealer internal compliance procedures, programs to eliminate straw purchases, improved security measures, reducing youth access, and mandatory training for gun dealer employees. The additional protections set forth in this act will greatly enhance the state's efforts to reduce criminal activity in the state.

§ 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 39-BB to read as follows:

2 disposal to individuals not legally entitled to purchase or possess such 3 weapons. Such measures shall include, but need not be limited to,

31 (b) Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. uses the term "extent of 33 protect a particular area, room or container. Systems with a #3 extent 34 of protection include complete protection for all accessible openings, 35 and partial motion and sound detection at certain other areas of the 5 sale or disposition of firearms, rifles, or shotguns unless such person

18 than in the city of New York by any judge or justice of a court of 19 record; a license issued pursuant to section 400.01 of this article may 20 be revoked and cancelled at any time by the licensing officer or any 21 judge or justice of a court of record. A license to engage in the busi-22 ness of dealer may be revoked or suspended for any violation of the 23 provisions of article thirty-nine-BB of the general business law. The 24 official revoking a license shall give written notice thereof without 25 unnecessary delay to the executive department, division of state police, 26 Albany, and shall also notify immediately the duly constituted police 27 authorities of the locality.

48 firearms shall keep a record book approved as to form, except in the 49 city of New York, by the superintendent of state police. In the record 50 book shall be entered at the time of every transaction involving a 51 firearm the date, name, age, occupation and residence of any person from 52 whom a firearm is received or to whom a firearm is delivered, and the 53 calibre, make, model, manufacturer's name and serial number, or if none, 54 any other distinguishing number or identification mark on such firearm.
55 Before delivering a firearm to any person, the licensee shall require 56 him to produce either a license valid under this section to carry or 4 person's status as a peace officer with the division of state police.

5 After completing the foregoing, the licensee shall remove and retain the 6 attached coupon and enter in the record book the date of such license, 7 number, if any, and name of the licensing officer, in the case of the 8 holder of a license to carry or possess, or the shield or other number, 9 if any, assignment and department, unit or agency, in the case of an 10 exempt person. The original transaction report shall be forwarded to the 11 division of state police within ten days of delivering a firearm to any 12 person, and a duplicate copy shall be kept by the licensee. The super-13 intendent of state police may designate that such record shall be 14 completed and transmitted in electronic form. A dealer may be granted a 15 waiver from transmitting such records in electronic form if the super-16 intendent determines that such dealer is incapable of such transmission 17 due to technological limitations that are not reasonably within the 18 control of the dealer, or other exceptional circumstances demonstrated 19 by the dealer, pursuant to a process established in regulation, and at 20 the discretion of the superintendent. Records assembled or collected for 21 purposes of inclusion in the database created pursuant to section 400.02
22 of this article shall not be subject to disclosure pursuant to article 23 six of the public officers law. The record book shall be maintained on 24 the premises mentioned and described in the license and shall be open at 25 all reasonable hours for inspection by any peace officer, acting pursu-
26 ant to his special duties, or police officer. In the event of cancella-27 tion or revocation of the license for gunsmith or dealer in firearms, or 28 discontinuance of business by a licensee, such record book shall be 29 immediately surrendered to the licensing officer in the city of New 30 York, and in the counties of Nassau and Suffolk, and elsewhere in the 31 state to the executive department, division of state police.

33 of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to 34 be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the 35 remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, 36 sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the 37 controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

38 § 6. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 39 have become a law; provided that the superintendent of the division of 40 state police is authorized and directed to immediately adopt, amend, and 41 promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary and desirable 42 to effectuate the purposes of section two of this act.
