liability companies that are disregarded entities for federal income tax purposes must pay a filing fee of twenty-five dollars for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand eight.

4 (B) The filing fee will be based on the New York source gross income of the limited liability company or partnership for the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year for which the fee is due. If the 7 limited liability company or partnership does not have any New York source gross income for the taxable year immediately preceding the taxa-9 ble year for which the fee is due, the limited liability company or 10 partnership shall pay the minimum filing fee. Partnerships, other than 11 limited liability partnerships under article eight-B of the partnership law and foreign limited liability partnerships, with less than one 12 13 million dollars in New York source gross income are exempt from the 14 filing fee. New York source gross income is the sum of the partners' 15 members' shares of federal gross income from the partnership or limited 16 liability company derived from or connected with New York sources, 17 determined in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred thirty-one of this article as if those provisions and any related 18 provisions expressly referred to a computation of federal gross income 19 20 from New York sources. For this purpose, federal gross income is 21 computed without any allowance or deduction for cost of goods sold. except that for companies engaged primarily in farming or commercial 22 horse boarding, federal gross income shall be based upon net income as 23 24 reported for federal tax purposes.

25 The amount of the filing fee for taxable years beginning on or after 26 January first, two thousand eight will be determined in accordance with 27 the following table:
