AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to temporary detention of persons whose presumptive release, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision alleged to have violated the terms of their release

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 545 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(i) If the parole officer having charge of a presumptively released, 5 paroled or conditionally released person or a person released to postrelease supervision or a person received under the uniform act for outof-state parolee supervision shall have reasonable cause to believe that 7 such person has lapsed into criminal ways or company, or has violated 9 one or more conditions of his presumptive release, parole, conditional 10 release or post-release supervision, such parole officer shall report such fact to a member of the board, or to any officer of the department 11 designated by the board, and thereupon a warrant may be issued for the 12 retaking of such person and for his temporary detention in accordance 13 with the rules of the board unless such person has been determined to be 14 currently unfit to proceed to trial or is currently subject to a tempo-15 rary or final order of observation pursuant to article seven hundred 17 thirty of the criminal procedure law, in which case no warrant shall be 18 issued. The retaking and detention of any such person may be further 19 regulated by rules and regulations of the department not inconsistent 20 with this article. A warrant issued pursuant to this section shall 21 constitute sufficient authority to the superintendent or other person in charge of any jail, penitentiary, lockup or detention pen to whom it is delivered to hold in temporary detention the person named therein, and the period of temporary detention in the custody of such local correc-3 tional facility shall not exceed seventy-two hours and thereafter the person shall be transferred to the custody of the department to be held in temporary custody; except that a warrant issued with respect to a 7 person who has been released on medical parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-r of this article and whose parole is being revoked 9 pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision four of such section shall 10 constitute authority for and require the immediate placement of the 11 parolee only into imprisonment in the custody of the department to hold in temporary detention. A warrant issued pursuant to this section shall 12 13 also constitute sufficient authority to the person in charge of a drug 14 treatment campus, as defined in subdivision twenty of section two of the 15 correction law, to hold the person named therein, in accordance with the 16 procedural requirements of this section, for a period of at least ninety days to complete an intensive drug treatment program mandated by the 17 18 board as an alternative to presumptive release or parole or conditional release revocation, or the revocation of post-release supervision, and 19 20 shall also constitute sufficient authority for return of the person 21 named therein to local custody to hold in temporary detention for 22 further revocation proceedings in the event said person does not 23 successfully complete the intensive drug treatment program. The board's 24 rules shall provide for cancellation of delinquency and restoration to 25 supervision upon the successful completion of the program. 26

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, that, effective immediately, any rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be promulgated, amended and/or repealed on or before such date.
