AN ACT establishing a state government task force to study the feasibility of creating a New York State sponsored retirement security program for private sector workers in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. 1. There shall be established a state government task force 2 consisting of the superintendent of financial services and the director of the budget to study the feasibility of establishing a state sponsored retirement security program for private sector workers in this state.

- 2. The task force shall utilize the personnel and services of any other state agency in order to complete said feasibility study.
- 3. The task force shall review such reports and recommendations issued 8 by any reputable source and shall examine the activities of other states in this area.
- 4. The task force shall initially conduct such studies, surveys and 10 11 inquiries necessary to determine whether a need exists in this state for 12 a state sponsored retirement security program or whether current private 13 sector resources along with federal and state laws and incentives are sufficient to provide private sector workers with ability to establish 15 adequate individual retirement programs designed to provide the requi-16 site retirement security.
- 5. In the event that the task force determines that current private 17 sector resources along with federal and state laws are not sufficient to 18 allow private sector workers to establish individual 19 20 programs, the task force shall determine the feasibility of the state 21 sponsoring a retirement security program for private sector workers. In 22 the course of such studies the task force shall consider the following 23 criteria:
- 2.4 a. maximization of participation and ease of enrollment;
