February 24, 2017

Introduced by Sen. SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to permitting students made homeless by an act of terrorism or natural disaster to attend school in the school district in which they resided prior to being homeless for two school years after the event

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 3209 of the education law is amended by adding a new paragraph c-1 to read as follows:

c-1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, where a child becomes homeless as a result of an act of terrorism or a natural disaster which results in the declaration of a state of emergency or disaster by the state or by the federal government, such child may designate and continue to be enrolled in the school district of origin for up to two full school years after the act of terrorism or natural disaster provided such school district is not overcrowded.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
