40 If the reporting individual personally provides services to any person 41 or entity, or works as a member or employee of a partnership or corporation 42 that provides such services (referred to hereinafter as a 43 "firm"), then identify each client or customer to whom the reporting 44 individual personally provided services, or who was referred to the firm 45 by the reporting individual, and from whom the reporting individual or 46 his or her firm earned fees in excess of $10,000 during the reporting 47 period for such services rendered in direct connection with:

For purposes of this question, "referred to the firm" shall mean: having intentionally and knowingly taken a specific act or series of acts to intentionally procure for the reporting individual's firm or knowingly solicit or direct to the reporting individual's firm in whole or substantial part, a person or entity that becomes a client of that firm for the purposes of representation for a matter as defined in subparagraphs (i) through (iv) of this paragraph, as the result of such procurement, solicitation or direction of the reporting individual. A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article.

The disclosure requirement in this question shall not require disclosure of clients or customers receiving medical or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or insurance brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, or domestic relations matters. With respect to clients represented in other matters, where disclosure of a client's identity is likely to cause harm, the reporting individual shall request an exemption from the joint commission pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four of the executive law, provided, however, that a reporting individual who first enters public office after July first, two thousand twelve, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.

(iii) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the reporting period; or

(iv) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period.

For payments received from clients referred to the firm by the reporting individual, if the reporting individual directly received a referral fee or fees for such referral, identify the client and the payment so received.

For purposes of this question, "referred to the firm" shall mean: having intentionally and knowingly taken a specific act or series of acts to intentionally procure for the reporting individual's firm or having knowingly solicited or directed to the reporting individual's firm in whole or substantial part, a person or entity that becomes a client of that firm for the purposes of representation for a matter as defined in clauses (i) through (iv) of this subparagraph, as the result of such procurement, solicitation or direction of the reporting individual. 22 A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while 23 lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), 24 (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this 25 article.

26 The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not 27 require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceu-28 tical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real 29 estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her 30 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 31 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 32 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 33 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, 34 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting 35 individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance 36 policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only 37 report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individ-38 ual; with respect to matters in which the client's name is required by 39 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family 40 court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or 41 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 42 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 43 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 44 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-
45 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, 46 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 47 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 48 office of court administration, who will maintain such information

1 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 2 to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclo-
3 sure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time 4 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 5 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 6 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 7 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-8 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration 9 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information 10 submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confiden-
11 tially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not 12 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to 13 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint commission 14 pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four 15 of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In 16 such application, the reporting individual shall state the following:
17 "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services 18 in connection with:

19 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 20 reporting period;

21 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state 22 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

23 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency 24 during the reporting period;

25 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 26 reporting period; or

27 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a 28 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

29 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the 30 office of court administration may consult with bar or other profes-31 sional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individ-32 uals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of profes-33 sional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the 34 office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall 35 consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the 36 size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the 37 state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the 38 client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so 39 how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal 40 trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retal-41 iation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm 42 to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the 43 attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in 44 an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

45 The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court 46 administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to 47 such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination.
48 The office of court administration shall issue its final determination 49 within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other 50 provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, 51 the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to 52 this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground 53 for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or 54 criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first 55 enters public office after January first, two thousand sixteen, need not 56 report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the

1 reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering 2 public office.

3 (c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE 4 PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR 5 NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE 6 SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOU-7 SAND FIFTEEN:

8 If the reporting individual receives income of ten thousand dollars or 9 greater from any employment or activity reportable under question 8(a), 10 identify each registered lobbyist who has directly referred to such 11 individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting indi-12 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm
13 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 14 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 15 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 16 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 17 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 18 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 19 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 20 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 21 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 22 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 23 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 24 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 25 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering 26 services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal 27 law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not 28 identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal 29 representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law 30 enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or 31 domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify 32 individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the report-33 ing individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that 34 provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to 35 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-36 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters 37 in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to 38 minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent 39 that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal repre-40 sentation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or 41 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 42 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 43 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 44 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-45 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 46 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 47 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 48 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 49 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 50 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response 51 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 52 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 53 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 54 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 55 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 56 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint commission pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in connection with:

(i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the reporting period;

(ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

(iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency during the reporting period;

(iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the reporting period; or

(v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the office of court administration may consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.
