(c) "Contraceptive coverage" shall mean that portion of a policy or 4 contract of group accident, group health or group accident and health insurance that provides coverage for the cost of contraceptive drugs or devices approved by the federal food and drug administration or generic equivalents approved as substitutes by such food and drug administration under the prescription of a health care provider legally authorized to prescribe under title eight of the education law.

§ 2. Section 217 of the labor law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

3-a. Contraceptive coverage notification. A policyholder shall provide 13 written notice to certificate holders prior to substituting a policy or 14 contract of group accident, group health or group accident and health 15 insurance with another such policy or contract that alters, restricts, or terminates contraceptive coverage. Such notice shall be provided not 16 less than ninety days prior to any such substitution. Where the certif-18 icate holders are employees represented by a labor organization, such

§ 3. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 217-a to read as follows:

8 § 217-a. Prospective employee notification of contraceptive coverage. 9 An employer who is issued a policy or contract for group accident, group 10 health or group accident and health insurance that covers some or all of its employees shall provide notice to all persons who seek employment 11 with such employer as to whether such policy or contract includes 12 contraceptive coverage, as such term is defined in paragraph (c) of 13 14 subdivision two of section two hundred seventeen of this article. Where such policy or contract includes some, but not all, contraceptive drugs 15 16 and devices or their generic equivalents approved by the federal food 17 and drug administration, such notice shall also specify which such drugs or devices are not included in such insurance coverage. Such notice 18 19 shall be prominently displayed on the face of any written application 20 for employment utilized by an employer or included on a separate written 21 notice form to be provided to each person who receives such written application. Where such employer maintains a publicly accessible webpage 22 that provides information on prospective employment opportunities, such 23 employer shall provide clear and conspicuous notice on such webpage as 24 25 to whether such employer provides contraceptive coverage and, if so, 26 whether such coverage includes some, but not all, contraceptive drugs 27 and devices or their generic equivalent approved by the federal food and drug administration. The commissioner, in consultation with the depart-28 29 ment of financial services, is authorized to promulgate such rules and 30 regulations as he or she deems necessary to implement the provisions of 31

32 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 33 have become a law.
