2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

March 6, 2017

Introduced by Sen. HOYLMAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Social Services

AN ACT to amend the social services law and the real property law, in relation to protecting homeless children from lead paint poisoning

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 143-b of the social services law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. No state or local agency shall arrange to place a family consisting 4 of a person or persons under six years of age or pregnant women in any 5 dwelling unit constructed prior to nineteen hundred seventy, or, in 6 cities with a population of one million or more, any dwelling unit
7 constructed prior to nineteen hundred sixty, for which the rent is paid 8 in any part with state funds unless such dwelling unit has been first 9 inspected by a person accredited pursuant to the requirements of 40
10 C.F.R. 745.325 or successor regulation, governing the accreditation of 11 individuals engaging in lead-based paint activities, and determined to 12 be free of lead-based hazards, as defined by 42 U.S.C. §4851b(15) and 40
13 C.F.R. §745.103, or successor statute and regulation. A written report 14 shall be prepared of such inspection and shall be provided to the 15 tenant.

16 § 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 236-a to 17 read as follows:

18 § 236-a. Discrimination against persons and families receiving public 19 assistance or governmental housing subsidies prohibited. 1. Any person, 20 firm or corporation owning or having in charge any apartment house, 21 tenement house or other building or manufactured home park used for 22 dwelling purposes who shall refuse to rent any or part of any such 23 building or manufactured home park to any person or family, or who 24 discriminates in the terms, conditions, or privileges of any such 25 rental, on the ground that such person or family receives public assist-

1 ance or any other government subsidy for payment of rent shall be guilty
2 of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine 3 of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for 4 each offense.

5 2.(a) Where discriminatory conduct prohibited by this section has 6 occurred, an aggrieved individual shall have a cause of action in any 7 court of competent jurisdiction for damages, declaratory and injunctive 8 relief.

9 (b) In all actions brought under this section, the court shall allow 10 the prevailing plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees and, upon a finding 11 that the defendant's discriminatory conduct was willful, an additional 12 amount as liquidated damages equal to two thousand five hundred dollars 13 shall be awarded.

14 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
