52 53 coordinate activities to identify and provide training to the institutions and individuals described in this section.

- 3. (a) As part of the program, the director may award grants to qualified designated agencies to establish local elderly exploitation outreach, education and training programs. Qualified designated agencies shall work collaboratively with such institutions and individuals, and their representative associations.
 - (b) In making such grants, the director shall consider:
- 9 (1) the manner in which the designated agency proposes to provide such 10 education, outreach and training;
 - (2) the capacity of the designated agency to coordinate its services with banking, human service and law enforcement and public agencies which provide services or assistance to the elderly, including the local department of social services adult protective services unit; and
 - (3) any other criteria determined by the director to be appropriate.
 - The program shall, at a minimum, consist of the following elements which shall be provided by the office:
 - (a) educational and informational materials in print, audio, visual, electronic or other media;
 - (b) public service announcements, advertisements, media campaigns, workshops, mass mailings, conferences or presentations; and
 - (c) instructions on how to report known or suspected incidents of financial exploitation of the elderly, including the appropriate telephone numbers to call and the types of information that would assist the office with its investigation of such reports.
- 26 5. The director shall convene an advisory committee made up of at 27 least seven, but no more than twelve members to advise the director and make recommendations on the aspects of developing and implementing the 28 29 program. Members of the advisory committee shall include, but not be limited to: at least two representatives from statewide senior advocacy 30 31 organizations, at least one attorney whose practice concentrates in 32 elder law or an individual acting on behalf of the elder law section of the New York state bar association, at least one banker or a represen-33 34 tative of an association representing bankers, at least one certified 35 public accountant or a representative of an association representing certified public accountants, at least one member representing protec-36 tive service agencies for adults, and at least one law enforcement 37 38 representative.
- § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 98-d to 40 read as follows:
 - § 98-d. Financial exploitation, outreach, education and training fund. There is hereby established in the joint custody of the comptroller and the superintendent of financial services a special revenue fund to be known as the financial exploitation, outreach, education and training fund.
 - 2. The financial exploitation, outreach, education and training fund shall consist of all moneys, appropriated thereto, and all other fees, fines, grants, bequests or other monies credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source.
 - 3. The moneys of the financial exploitation, outreach, education and training fund shall be disbursed by the comptroller to the state office for the aging for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections two hundred nineteen and two hundred nineteen-a of the elder law.
- 54 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 55 have become a law.
