AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to the financial security requirements for small business milk dealers and increasing the minimum farm products sales threshold for requiring a farm products dealer license and security

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 4 of section 57 of the 2 agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 596 of the laws of 3 1986, is amended to read as follows:
4 Application for a license, or licenses shall be made upon a form
5 prescribed by the commissioner. The applicant shall furnish satisfactory 6 evidence of good moral character, and shall give proof of his ability to 7 perform the functions for which a license is applied, to the satisfac-
8 tion of the commissioner. [~~The applicant shall pay a license fee of five~~ 9 ~~dollars to the commissioner for remittance to the state treasury.~~] The 10 commissioner, in his discretion, may combine in one license authority to 11 perform any of the functions for which a license is required pursuant to 12 the provisions of subdivisions one, two and three of this section. A 13 license shall be for a period not exceeding five years, and may be 14 renewed, in the discretion of the commissioner, for successive periods 15 of not exceeding five years each [~~upon payment of a license fee of two~~ 16 ~~dollars to the commissioner for remittance to the state treasury.~~].
17 § 2. The first undesignated paragraph of section 57-a of the agricul-18 ture and markets law, as amended by chapter 149 of the laws of 1969, is 19 amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09990-03-7

1 No person shall test milk and/or cream in order to determine the 2 bacterial or leucocyte count or make other tests to determine the pres-
 3 ence or absence of abnormal milk, where the results of such test affects 4 the rate of payment to the producer for such milk and/or cream, the 5 classification of milk and/or cream as received from the producer, or 6 the acceptance or rejection of such milk and/or cream by the operator of 7 a milk-receiving or manufacturing plant, unless licensed by the commis-
 8 sioner. Application for such license shall be made upon a form
 9 prescribed by the commissioner. The applicant shall furnish satisfactory 10 evidence of good moral character, and shall demonstrate his ability to 11 make such tests by an examination under the direction of the commission-12 er. [~~The applicant shall pay a license fee of five dollars to the~~ 13 ~~commissioner for remittance to the state treasury.~~] A license shall be 14 for a period not exceeding five years. A license may be renewed in the 15 discretion of the commissioner, without an examination, for successive 16 periods of not exceeding five years each [~~upon payment of a license fee~~
 17 ~~of two dollars to the commissioner for remittance to the state treas-~~ 18 ~~ury~~].

19 § 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 244 of the agriculture
 20 and markets law, as added by chapter 367 of the laws of 1996, is amended
 21 to read as follows:

22 (b) The licensing, bonding and stated grape price provisions of this 23 article shall not apply to: (i) any person whose annual dealings in 24 farm products do not exceed the sum of [~~ten~~ twenty] thousand dollars; or 25 (ii) any agricultural cooperative with respect to the receipt, process-26 ing and marketing of grapes or grape products of its producer members or 27 non-members of such cooperative on the basis of their patronage,
 28 provided, however, that the annual purchase of grape or grape products
 29 from non-members of such cooperative shall not exceed the sum of one 30 hundred thousand dollars; or (iii) a charitable not-for-profit organiza-31 tion which receives for distribution donated farm salvage, as defined in 32 section two hundred seventeen of this chapter.

33 § 4. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 250 of the agriculture
 34 and markets law, as added by chapter 367 of the laws of 1996, is amended
 35 to read as follows:

36 (b) In addition to the bond or letter of credit required by section
 37 two hundred forty-eight of this article, a fee for deposit in the agri-
 38 cultural producers security fund shall be paid annually to the commis-
 39 sioner at the time application is made for a license. Such fee shall be 40 determined on the basis of the annual dollar volume of purchases of farm 41 products as shown in the application for license under this article in 42 accordance with the following schedule:

Annual Volume	Fee
$5,000,000 and over	$2,500
3,000,000 - 4,999,999	1,750
1,000,000 - 2,999,999	1,000
500,000 - 999,999	750
300,000 - 499,999	500
50,000 - 299,999	300
20,000 - 49,999	200
[10,000 - 19,999]	[100]

52 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 258-b of the agriculture and markets law 53 is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

54 (d) Upon an application of a dealer, and pursuant to regulations
 55 promulgated to effectuate the provisions of this paragraph, a dealer
 56 that purchases less than one hundred thousand pounds of milk per month

1 shall not be subject to bond or assessment under the security provisions
2 of this section when the commissioner waives such provisions. Notwith-
3 standing such waiver, a claim may be filed and pursued against such a 4 dealer as provided for in this section; and any claim that is certified 5 for payment by the commissioner shall be paid from funds derived from 6 license fees assessed upon milk dealers pursuant to section two hundred 7 fifty-eight-a of this article.

8 The defaulting dealer shall be liable for reimbursement to the commis-9 sioner for the value of the claim in the same manner as if the claim was 10 paid out of the milk producers security fund as provided for in para-
11 graph (e) of subdivision five of this section.

12 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
