1 manufactured under such license to any person holding a winery license, farm winery license, distiller's class A license, a distiller's class B license or a permittee engaged in the manufacture of products which are unfit for beverage use. It shall also authorize the sale from the licensed premises and from one other location in the state of New York of liquors manufactured by such licensee to a wholesale or retail liquor licensee or permittee in sealed containers of not more than one quart each. In addition, it shall authorize such licensee to sell from the licensed premises New York state labelled liquors to licensed farm wineries, farm breweries, farm distilleries and farm cideries in sealed containers of not more than one quart for retail sale for off-premises consumption. Such license shall also include the privilege to operate a rectifying plant under the same terms and conditions as the holder of a class B-1 distiller's license without the payment of any additional fee. (b) A distiller licensed under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may at the licensed premises, conduct tastings of, and sell at retail for

(b) A distiller licensed under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may at the licensed premises, conduct tastings of, and sell at retail for consumption on or off the licensed premises, any liquor manufactured by the licensee or any New York state labelled liquor. Provided, however, for tastings and sales for on-premises consumption, the licensee shall regularly keep food available for sale or service to its retail customers for consumption on the premises. A licensee providing the following shall be deemed in compliance with this provision: (i) sandwiches, soups or other such foods, whether fresh, processed, pre-cooked or frozen; and/or (ii) food items intended to complement the tasting of alcoholic beverages, which shall mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or walking, including but not limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, chocolates, breads, mustards and crackers. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell liquor at retail for consumption on or off the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such licensee.

(c) A distiller licensed under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may operate a restaurant, hotel, catering establishment, or other food and drinking establishment in or adjacent to the licensed premises and sell at such place, at retail for consumption on the premises, liquor manufactured by the licensee and any New York state labelled liquor. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell liquor at retail for consumption on the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such licensee.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, distillers licensed under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may apply to the liquor authority for a license to sell liquor, wine or beer at retail for consumption on the premises. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell beer, wine, or liquor at retail for consumption on the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such application.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
