§ 261.10 Abandonment of an elderly or disabled person.

A person is guilty of abandonment of an elderly or disabled person when, being a person legally charged with the care or custody of an elderly or disabled person, he or she deserts such person in any place with intent to wholly abandon him or her.

Abandonment of an elderly or disabled person is a class E felony.

§ 261.15 Abandonment of an elderly or disabled person; defense.

In any prosecution for abandonment of an elderly or disabled person, pursuant to section 261.10 of this article, based upon an alleged desertion of an elderly or disabled person with an intent to wholly abandon such an elderly or disabled person, it is an affirmative defense that, with the intent that the elderly or disabled person be safe from physical injury and cared for in an appropriate manner, the defendant left the elderly or disabled person with an appropriate person or in a suitable location and promptly notified an appropriate person of the elderly or disabled person's location.

§ 261.20 Endangering the welfare of an elderly or disabled person.

A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of an elderly or disabled person when being a person legally charged with the care or custody of an elderly or disabled person:

1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner likely to be injurious to the physical, mental or moral welfare of an elderly or disabled person, or directs or authorizes such an elderly or disabled person, to engage in an occupation involving a substantial risk of danger to his or her life or health; or

1 defect or mental incapacity as to conduct that constitutes an offense or 2 an attempt to commit an offense referred to in section 130.16 of this 3 chapter, without additional evidence sufficient pursuant to section 4 130.16 of this chapter to sustain a conviction of an offense referred to 5 in section 130.16 of this chapter, or of an attempt to commit the same.
6 § 261.30 Endangering the welfare of an elderly or disabled person;
7 defense.

8 In any prosecution for endangering the welfare of an elderly or disa-9 bled person, pursuant to section 261.20 of this article:

10 1. based upon an alleged failure or refusal to provide proper medical 11 care or treatment to an elderly or disabled person, who is ill, it is an 12 affirmative defense that the elderly or disabled person is a member or 13 adherent of an organized church or religious group the tenets of which 14 prescribe prayer as the principal treatment for illness, and that the 15 elderly or disabled person was treated in accordance with such tenets; 16 or

17 2. based upon an alleged desertion of an elderly or disabled person, 18 it is an affirmative defense that, with the intent that the person be 19 safe from physical injury and cared for in an appropriate manner, the 20 defendant left the person with an appropriate person or in a suitable 21 location and promptly notified an appropriate person of the person's 22 location.

23 § 261.35 Endangering the welfare of a vulnerable elderly person or a 24 disabled person in the second degree.

26 person or a disabled person in the second degree when, being a caregiver

29 causes such injury to such person; or

32 person by means of a deadly weapon or a dangerous instrument; or

33 4. He or she subjects such person to sexual contact without the 34 latter's consent. Lack of consent under this subdivision results from 35 forcible compulsion or incapacity to consent, as those terms are defined 36 in article one hundred thirty of this chapter, or any other circum-
37 stances in which the vulnerable elderly person or disabled person does 38 not expressly or impliedly acquiesce in the caregiver's conduct.

39 In any prosecution under this subdivision in which the victim's 40 alleged lack of consent results solely from incapacity to consent 41 because of the victim's mental disability or mental incapacity, the 42 provisions of section 130.16 of this chapter shall apply. In addition, 43 in any prosecution under this subdivision in which the victim's lack of 44 consent is based solely upon his or her incapacity to consent because he 45 or she was mentally disabled, mentally incapacitated or physically help-46 less, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant, at the time he or 47 she engaged in the conduct constituting the offense, did not know of the 48 facts or conditions responsible for such incapacity to consent.

49 Endangering the welfare of a vulnerable elderly person or a disabled
50 person in the second degree is a class E felony.

51 § 261.40 Endangering the welfare of a vulnerable elderly person or a 52 disabled person in the first degree.

54 person or a disabled person in the first degree when, being a caregiver 55 for a vulnerable elderly person or disabled person:

2 causes serious physical injury to such person; or

19 injury to a person sixty years old or older, or to a person who has a

27 This section shall not apply in the case when the person who is 28 abducted is sixty years old or older, or to a person who has a physical 29 or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity,
30 and the kidnapping was done with the intention of compelling such person
