1 subdivision two of section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social 2 services law, of the person against whom the order is sought.

3 3. "Respondent" means the person against whom an extreme risk 4 protection order is or may be sought under this article.

5 § 6341. Application for an extreme risk protection order. In accord-6 ance with this article, a petitioner may file a sworn application, and 7 accompanying supporting documentation, setting forth the facts and 8 circumstances justifying the issuance of an extreme risk protection 9 order. Such application and supporting documentation shall be filed in 10 the supreme court in the county in which the respondent resides. The 11 chief administrator of the courts shall adopt forms that may be used for 12 purposes of such applications and the court's consideration of such 13 applications. Such application form shall include inquiry as to whether 14 the petitioner knows, or has reason to believe, that the respondent 15 owns, possesses or has access to a firearm, rifle or shotgun and if so, 16 a request that the petitioner list or describe such firearms, rifles and 17 shotguns, and the respective locations thereof, with as much specificity 18 as possible.

19 § 6342. Issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order. 1.
20 Upon application of a petitioner pursuant to this article, the court may 21 issue a temporary extreme risk protection order, ex parte or otherwise, 22 to prohibit the respondent from purchasing, possessing or attempting to 23 purchase or possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, upon a finding that 24 there is probable cause to believe the respondent is likely to engage in 25 conduct that would result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, 26 as defined in paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of 27 the mental hygiene law. Such application for a temporary order shall be 28 determined in writing on the same day the application is filed.

29 2. In determining whether grounds for a temporary extreme risk 30 protection order exist, the court shall consider any relevant factors 31 including, but not limited to, the following acts of the respondent:

32 (a) a threat or act of violence or use of physical force directed 33 toward the petitioner or another person;

34 (b) a violation or alleged violation of an order of protection;

35 (c) any pending charge or conviction for an offense involving the use 36 of a weapon;

37 (d) the reckless use, display or brandishing of a firearm, rifle or 38 shotgun;

39 (e) any history of a violation of an extreme risk protection order;

40 (f) evidence of recent or ongoing abuse of controlled substances or 41 alcohol; or

42 (g) evidence of recent acquisition of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or 43 other deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, or any ammunition therefor.

44 In considering the factors under this subdivision, the court shall 45 consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of such act or 46 acts and the age of the person at the time of the occurrence of such act 47 or acts.

48 3. The application of the petitioner and supporting documentation, if 49 any, shall set forth the factual basis for the request and probable 50 cause for issuance of a temporary order. The court may conduct an exam-51 ination under oath of the petitioner and any witness the petitioner may 52 produce.

53 4. A temporary extreme risk protection order, if warranted, shall 54 issue in writing, and shall include:

55 (a) a statement of the grounds found for the issuance of the order;

56 (b) the date and time the order expires;

1 (c) the address of the court that issued the order;

2 (d) a statement to the respondent: (i) directing that the respondent
3 may not purchase, possess or attempt to purchase or possess a firearm, 4 rifle or shotgun while the order is in effect and that any firearm,
5 rifle or shotgun possessed by such respondent shall be promptly surren-6 dered to any authorized law enforcement official;

7 (ii) informing the respondent that the court will hold a hearing no 8 sooner than three nor more than six business days after service of the 9 temporary order, to determine whether a final extreme risk protection 10 order will be issued and the date, time and location of such hearing, 11 provided that the respondent shall be entitled to more than six days 12 upon request in order to prepare for the hearing; and (iii) informing 13 the respondent the he or she may seek the advice of an attorney and that 14 an attorney should be consulted promptly; and 15 (e) a form to be completed and executed by the respondent at the time 16 of service of the temporary extreme risk protection order which elicits 17 a list of all firearms, rifles and shotguns possessed by the respondent 18 and the particular location of each firearm, rifle or shotgun listed.

19 5. If the application for a temporary extreme risk protection order is 20 not granted, the court shall notify the petitioner and, unless the 21 application is voluntarily withdrawn by the petitioner, nonetheless 22 schedule a hearing on the application for a final extreme risk 23 protection order. Such hearing shall be scheduled to be held promptly, 24 but in any event no later than ten business days after the date on which 25 such application is served on the respondent, provided, however, that 26 the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional time to 27 allow the respondent to prepare for the hearing. A notice of such hear-28 ing shall be prepared by the court and shall include the date and time 29 of the hearing, the address of the court, and the subject of the hear-30 ing.

31 6. (a) The court shall, in the manner specified in paragraph (b) of 32 this subdivision, arrange for prompt service of a copy of the temporary 33 extreme risk protection order, if any, the application therefor and, if 34 separately applied for or if a temporary extreme risk protection order 35 was not granted, the application for an extreme risk protection order, 36 any notice of hearing prepared by the court, along with any associated 37 papers including the petition and any supporting documentation, 38 provided, that the court may redact the address and contact information 39 of the petitioner from such application and papers where the court finds 40 that disclosure of such address or other contact information would pose 41 an unreasonable risk to the health or safety of the petitioner.

42 (b) The court shall provide copies of such documents to the appropri-43 ate law enforcement agency serving the jurisdiction of the respondent's 44 residence with a direction that such documents be promptly served on the 45 respondent; provided, however, that the petitioner may voluntarily 46 arrange for service of copies of such order and associated papers though 47 a third party, such as a licensed process server.

48 7. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other
49 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
50 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 51 temporary extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order 52 no later than the next business day after issuing the order to such 53 persons or agencies. The court also shall promptly notify such persons 54 and agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 55 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 56 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after

1 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. Any notice or 2 report submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an electronic 3 format, in a manner prescribed by the division of criminal justice
4 services.

5 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a temporary extreme risk 6 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-7 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 8 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 9 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-
10 diately report to the bureau the expiration of any such protection 11 order, any court order amending or revoking such protection order or 12 restoring the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shot-13 gun.

14 8. The issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order shall 15 constitute authority and direction for a police officer to remove all 16 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession. As part of 17 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 18 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession in a manner 19 consistent with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the 20 criminal procedure law.

21 9. Upon issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order, or upon 22 setting a hearing for a final extreme risk protection order where a 23 temporary order is denied or not requested, the court shall direct the 24 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to conduct a background 25 investigation and report to the court and, subject to any appropriate 26 redactions to protect any person, each party regarding whether the 27 respondent:

28 (a) has any prior criminal conviction for an offense involving domes-29 tic violence, use of a weapon, or other violence;

30 (b) has any criminal charge or violation currently pending against him 31 or her;

32 (c) is currently on parole or probation;

33 (d) possesses any registered firearms, rifles or shotguns; and 34 (e) has been, or is, subject to any order of protection or has 35 violated or allegedly violated any order of protection.

36 § 6343. Issuance of a final extreme risk protection order. 1. In 37 accordance with this article, no sooner than three business days nor 38 later than six business days after service of a temporary extreme risk 39 protection order and, alternatively, no later than ten business days 40 after service of an application under this article where no temporary 41 extreme risk protection order has been issued, the supreme court shall 42 hold a hearing to determine whether to issue a final extreme risk 43 protection order and, when applicable, whether a firearm, rifle or shot-44 gun surrendered by, or removed from, the respondent should be returned 45 to the respondent. The respondent shall be entitled to more than six 46 business days if a temporary extreme risk protection order has been 47 issued and the respondent requests a reasonable period of additional 48 time to prepare for the hearing. Where no temporary order has been 49 issued, the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional 50 time beyond the ten days to allow the respondent to prepare for the 51 hearing.

52 2. At the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the 53 petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 54 evidence, that the respondent is likely to engage in conduct that would 55 result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, as defined in 56 paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental

1 hygiene law. The court may consider the petition and any evidence 2 submitted by the petitioner, any evidence submitted by the respondent, 3 any testimony presented, and the report of the relevant law enforcement 4 agency submitted pursuant to subdivision nine of section sixty-three 5 hundred forty-two of this article. The court shall also consider the 6 factors set forth in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred 7 forty-two of this article.

8 3. (a) After the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 9 the court shall issue a written order granting or denying the extreme 10 risk protection order and setting forth the reasons for such determi-11 nation. If the extreme risk protection order is granted, the court shall 12 direct service of such order in the manner and in accordance with the 13 protections for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section 14 sixty-three hundred forty-two of this article.

15 (b) Upon issuance of an extreme risk protection order: (i) any 16 firearm, rifle or shotgun removed pursuant to a temporary extreme risk 17 protection order or such extreme risk protection order shall be retained 18 by the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction for the duration of 19 the order, unless ownership of the firearm, rifle or shotgun is legally 20 transferred by the respondent to another individual permitted by law to 21 own and possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun; (ii) the supreme court 22 shall temporarily suspend any existing firearm license possessed by the 23 respondent and order the respondent temporarily ineligible for such a 24 license; (iii) the respondent shall be prohibited from purchasing or 25 possessing, or attempting to purchase or possess, a firearm, rifle or 26 shotgun; and (iv) the court shall direct the respondent to surrender any 27 firearm, rifle or shotgun in his or her possession.

28 (c) An extreme risk protection order issued in accordance with this 29 section shall extend, as specified by the court, for a period of up to 30 one year from the date of the issuance of such order; provided, however, 31 that if such order was immediately preceded by the issuance of a tempo-32 rary extreme risk protection order, then the duration of the extreme 33 risk protection order shall be measured from the date of issuance of 34 such temporary extreme risk protection order.

35 (d) The issuance of a final extreme risk protection order shall 36 constitute authority and direction for a police officer to remove all
37 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession. As part of 38 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 39 firearms, rifles and shotguns in a respondent's possession consistent 40 with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the criminal proce-41 dure law.

42 4. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other
43 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
44 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 45 final extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order to 46 such persons and agencies no later than the next business day after 47 issuing the order. The court also shall promptly notify such persons and 48 agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 49 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess
50 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 51 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. Any notice or 52 report submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an electronic 53 format, in a manner prescribed by the division of criminal justice
54 services.

55 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a final extreme risk
56 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-

1 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of
2 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from
3 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-4 diately report to the bureau the expiration of such protection order and 5 any court order amending or revoking such protection order or restoring 6 the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

7 5. (a) If, in accordance with a temporary extreme risk protection 8 order, a firearm, rifle or shotgun has been surrendered by or removed 9 from the respondent, and the supreme court subsequently finds that the 10 petitioner has not met the required standard of proof, the court's find-11 ing shall include a written order, issued to all parties, directing that 12 any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant to such 13 temporary order shall be returned to the respondent.

14 (b) If any other person demonstrates that he or she is the lawful 15 owner of any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant 16 to a protection order issued in accordance with this article, and 17 provided that there is no legal impediment to the person's possession of 18 a surrendered or removed firearm, rifle or shotgun, the court may, after 19 notice to the parties and an opportunity to be heard, direct that such 20 firearm, rifle or shotgun be returned to such lawful owner.

21 6. The respondent shall be notified on the record and in writing by 22 the court that he or she may submit one written request, at any time 23 during the effective period of an extreme risk protection order, for a 24 hearing setting aside any portion of such order. The request shall be 25 submitted in substantially the same form and manner as prescribed by the 26 chief administrator of the courts. Upon such request, the court shall 27 promptly hold a hearing, in accordance with this article, after provid-28 ing reasonable notice to the petitioner. The respondent shall bear the 29 burden to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, any change of circum-30 stances that may justify a change to the order.

31 § 6344. Surrender and removal of firearms, rifles and shotguns pursu-
32 ant to an extreme risk protection order. 1. When a law enforcement offi-33 cer takes any firearm, rifle or shotgun pursuant to a temporary extreme 34 risk protection order or a final extreme risk protection order, the 35 officer shall give to the person from whom such firearm, rifle or shot-36 gun is taken a receipt or voucher for the property taken, describing the 37 property in detail. In the absence of a person, the officer shall leave 38 the receipt or voucher in the place where the property was found, mail a 39 copy of the receipt or voucher, retaining proof of mailing, to the last 40 known address of the respondent and, if different, the owner of the 41 firearm, rifle or shotgun, and file a copy of such receipt or voucher 42 with the court. All firearms, rifles and shotguns in the possession of a 43 law enforcement official pursuant to this article shall be subject to 44 the provisions of applicable law, including but not limited to subdivi-45 sion six of section 400.05 of the penal law; provided, however, that any 46 such firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be retained and not disposed of by 47 the law enforcement agency for at least two years unless legally trans-48 ferred by the respondent to an individual permitted by law to own and 49 possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

50 2. If the location to be searched during the execution of a temporary 51 extreme risk protection order or extreme risk protection order is joint-52 ly occupied by two or more parties, and a firearm, rifle or shotgun 53 located during the execution of such order is owned by a person other 54 than the respondent, the court may allow return of such firearm, rifle 55 or shotgun if it is demonstrated that the firearm, rifle or shotgun will 56 be safely stored in a manner consistent with section 265.45 of the penal

1 law, so that the respondent will not have access to or control of the 2 firearm, rifle or shotgun, and there is no evidence of unlawful 3 possession of the firearm, rifle or shotgun by the owner.

4 § 6345. Request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order. 1.
5 If a petitioner believes a person subject to an extreme risk protection 6 order continues to be likely to engage in conduct that would result in 7 serious harm to himself, herself, or others, as defined in paragraph one 8 or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law, 9 such petitioner may, at any time within sixty days prior to the expira-10 tion of such existing extreme risk protection order, initiate a request 11 for a renewal of such order, setting forth the facts and circumstances 12 necessitating the request. The chief administrator of the courts shall 13 adopt forms that may be used for purposes of such applications and the 14 court's consideration of such applications. The court may issue a tempo-15 rary extreme risk protection order in accordance with section sixty-16 three hundred forty-two of this article, during the period that a 17 request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order is under consid-18 eration pursuant to this section.

19 2. A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in the 20 supreme court, in accordance with section sixty-three hundred forty-21 three of this article, to determine if a request for renewal of the 22 order shall be granted. The respondent shall be served with written 23 notice of an application for renewal a reasonable time before the hear-24 ing, and shall be afforded an opportunity to fully participate in the 25 hearing. The court shall direct service of such application and the 26 accompanying papers in the manner and in accordance with the protections 27 for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section sixty-three 28 hundred forty-two of this article.

29 § 6346. Expiration of an extreme risk protection order. 1. A 30 protection order issued pursuant to this article, and all records of any 31 proceedings conducted pursuant to this article, shall be sealed upon 32 expiration of such order and the clerk of the court wherein such 33 proceedings were conducted shall immediately notify the commissioner of 34 the division of criminal justice services, the heads of all appropriate 35 police departments, applicable licensing officers, and all other appro-36 priate law enforcement agencies that the order has expired and that the 37 record of such protection order shall be sealed and not be made avail-38 able to any person or public or private entity, except that such records 39 shall be made available to:

40 (a) the respondent or the respondent's designated agent;
41 (b) courts in the unified court system;
42 (c) police forces and departments having responsibility for enforce-43 ment of the general criminal laws of the state; 44 (d) any state or local officer or agency with responsibility for the 45 issuance of licenses to possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, when the 46 respondent has made application for such a license; and 47 (e) any prospective employer of a police officer or peace officer as 48 those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of 49 section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, in relation to an applica-50 tion for employment as a police officer or peace officer; provided, 51 however, that every person who is an applicant for the position of 52 police officer or peace officer shall be furnished with a copy of all 53 records obtained under this subparagraph and afforded an opportunity to 54 make an explanation thereto.

55 2. Upon expiration of a protection order issued pursuant to this arti-56 cle and upon written application of the respondent who is the subject of 1 such order, with notice and opportunity to be heard to the petitioner 2 and every licensing officer responsible for issuance of a firearm 3 license to the subject of the order pursuant to article four hundred of 4 the penal law, and upon a written finding that there is no legal imped-5 iment to the respondent's possession of a surrendered firearm, rifle or 6 shotgun, the court shall order the return of a firearm, rifle or shotgun 7 not otherwise disposed of in accordance with subdivision one of section 8 sixty-three hundred forty-four of this article. When issuing such order 9 in connection with any firearm subject to a license requirement under 10 article four hundred of the penal law, if the licensing officer informs 11 the court that he or she will seek to revoke the license, the order 12 shall be stayed by the court until the conclusion of any license revoca-13 tion proceeding.

14 § 6347. Effect of findings and determinations in subsequent 15 proceedings. Notwithstanding any contrary claim based on common law or 16 a provision of any other law, no finding or determination made pursuant 17 to this article shall be interpreted as binding, or having collateral 18 estoppel or similar effect, in any other action or proceeding, or with 19 respect to any other determination or finding, in any court, forum or 20 administrative proceeding.

21 § 2. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 530.14 of the criminal 22 procedure law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 1996, is amended 23 to read as follows:

24 (b) The prompt surrender of one or more firearms pursuant to a court 25 order issued pursuant to this section shall be considered a voluntary 26 surrender for purposes of subparagraph (f) of paragraph one of subdivi-27 sion a of section 265.20 of the penal law. The disposition of any such 28 firearms shall be in accordance with the provisions of subdivision six 29 of section 400.05 of the penal law; provided, however, that upon termi-30 nation of any suspension order issued pursuant to this section or 31 section eight hundred forty-two-a of the family court act, upon written 32 application of the subject of the order, with notice and opportunity to 33 be heard to the district attorney, the county attorney, the protected 34 party, and every licensing officer responsible for issuance of a 35 firearms license to the subject of the order pursuant to article four 36 hundred of the penal law, and upon a written finding that there is no 37 legal impediment to the subject's possession of a surrendered firearm, 38 rifle or shotgun, any court of record exercising criminal jurisdiction 39 may order the return of a firearm, rifle or shotgun not otherwise 40 disposed of in accordance with subdivision six of section 400.05 of the 41 penal law. When issuing such order in connection with any firearm 42 subject to a license requirement under article four hundred of the penal 43 law, if the licensing officer informs the court that he or she will seek 44 to revoke the license, the order shall be stayed by the court until the 45 conclusion of any license revocation proceeding.

46 § 3. Section 265.45 of the penal law, as amended by section 3 of part 47 FF of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:
48 § 265.45 Safe storage of rifles, shotguns, and firearms.

49 No person who owns or is custodian of a rifle, shotgun or firearm who 50 resides with an individual who such person knows or has reason to know 51 is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) 52 (1), (4), (8) or (9), or pursuant to a temporary or final extreme risk 53 protection order issued under article sixty-three-A of the civil prac-54 tice law and rules, shall store or otherwise leave such rifle, shotgun 55 or firearm out of his or her immediate possession or control without
