AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to longevity in title for investigative employees of the division of state police

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 215 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 478 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 3. The sworn members of the New York state police shall be appointed 5 by the superintendent and permanent appointees may be removed by the superintendent only after a hearing. Members who have been assigned or appointed as investigators or senior investigators in the bureau of 7 criminal investigation or as a station commander, zone commander, zone 9 sergeant, first sergeant, captain or major for a period of three contin-10 uous years or more may be removed or demoted from such assignment or 11 appointment only after a hearing, the procedure of which shall be in 12 accordance with regulations adopted by the superintendent of state police; provided, however, that a hearing shall not be required when 13 14 reduction in rank from such position is based solely on reasons of the 15 economy, consolidation or abolition of functions, or curtailment of 16 activities. No person shall be appointed to the New York state police force as a sworn member unless he or she shall be a citizen of the 17 United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-nine years 18 except that in the superintendent's discretion, the maximum age may be 19 20 extended to thirty-five years. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any general or special law to the contrary the time spent on 22 military duty, not exceeding a total of six years, shall be subtracted from the age of any applicant who has passed his or her twenty-ninth 24 birthday, solely for the purpose of permitting qualification as to age 25 and for no other purpose. Such limitations as to age however shall not

1 apply to persons appointed to the positions of counsel, first assistant counsel, assistant counsel, and assistant deputy superintendent for 3 employee relations nor to any person appointed to the bureau of criminal investigation pursuant to section two hundred sixteen of this article nor shall any person be appointed unless he or she has fitness and good moral character and shall have passed a physical and mental examination 7 based upon standards provided by the rules and regulations of the superintendent. Appointments shall be made for a probationary period which, 9 in the case of appointees required to attend and complete a basic training program at the state police academy, shall include such time spent 10 11 attending the basic school and terminate one year after successful completion thereof. All other sworn members shall be subject to a proba-12 13 tionary period of one year from the date of appointment. Following 14 satisfactory completion of the probationary period the member shall be a 15 permanent appointee. Voluntary resignation or withdrawal from the New 16 York state police during such appointment shall be submitted to the 17 superintendent for approval. Reasonable time shall be required to account for all equipment issued or for debts or obligations to the 18 state to be satisfied. Resignation or withdrawal from the division 19 20 during a time of emergency, so declared by the governor, shall not be 21 approved if contrary to the best interest of the state and shall be a 22 misdemeanor. No sworn member removed from the New York state police shall be eligible for reappointment. The superintendent shall make rules 23 24 and regulations subject to approval by the governor for the discipline 25 and control of the New York state police and for the examination and qualifications of applicants for appointment as members thereto and such 27 examinations shall be held and conducted by the superintendent subject 28 to such rules and regulations. The superintendent is authorized to 29 charge a fee of twenty dollars as an application fee for any person 30 applying to take a competitive examination for the position of trooper, 31 and a fee of five dollars for any competitive examination for a civilian position. The superintendent shall promulgate regulations subject to the 33 approval of the director of the budget, to provide for a waiver of the application fee when the fee would cause an unreasonable hardship on the 34 35 applicant and to establish a fee schedule and charge fees for the use of 36 state police facilities. 37

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
