AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to loans to members of certain retirement systems

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision i of section 517-c of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 511 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

3

- i. Notwithstanding the provisions of section five hundred sixteen of this article, whenever a member of such a retirement system, for whom a loan is outstanding, retires, the retirement allowance payable without optional modification shall be reduced by a life annuity which is actuarially equivalent to the amount of the outstanding loan (all outstanding loans shall continue to accrue interest charges until retirement), such life annuity being calculated utilizing the interest rate on thirty 10 11 year United States treasury bonds as of January first of the calendar 12 year of the effective date of retirement and the mortality tables for 13 options available under section five hundred fourteen of this article. A 14 retiree of the New York city employees' retirement system [ex], board of 15 education retirement system of the city of New York, or the New York 16 state and local employees' retirement system whose benefit has been so reduced may repay the outstanding balance of the loan at any time. Bene-17 fits payable after the repayment of the loan shall not be subject to the 18 actuarial reduction required by this subdivision. 19
- 20 § 2. Subdivision i of section 613-b of the retirement and social secu-21 rity law, as amended by chapter 511 of the laws of 2005, is amended to 22 read as follows:
- 23 i. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision b of section six 24 hundred twelve of this article, whenever a member of such a retirement 25 system, for whom a loan is outstanding, retires, the retirement allow-
