- (a) "Consumer" means a person who agrees to pay a fee to an internet service provider for access to the internet for personal, family, or household purposes, and who does not resell access.
- 9 (b) "Internet service provider" (ISP) means a business entity or indi10 vidual who provides consumers authenticated access to, or presence on,
 11 the internet by means of a switched or dedicated telecommunications
 12 channel upon which the provider provides transit routing of internet
 13 protocol packets for and on behalf of the consumer. Internet service 14 provider does not include the offering, on a common carrier basis, of 15 telecommunications facilities or of telecommunications by means of these 16 facilities.
- 17 (c) "Personally identifiable information" means information that iden-18 tifies:
- 19 (i) a consumer by physical or electronic address or telephone number;
- 20 (ii) a consumer's internet search history or internet usage history;

- (iii) any of the contents of a consumer's data-storage devices.
- 2 2. Except as provided in subdivisions three and four of this section, 3 an ISP shall not knowingly disclose personally identifiable information 4 resulting from the consumer's use of the telecommunications or ISP with-5 out express written approval from the consumer.
 - (a) A telecommunications or ISP that has entered into a franchise agreement, right-of-way agreement, or other contract with the state of New York or any political subdivision thereof, or that uses facilities that are subject to such agreements, even if it is not a party to the agreement, shall not collect nor disclose personal information from a consumer resulting from the consumer's use of the telecommunications or ISP without express written approval from the consumer; and
- 13 (b) No such telecommunication or ISP shall refuse to provide its 14 services to a consumer on the grounds that the consumer has not approved
 15 the collection or disclosure of the consumer's personal information.
- 3. An ISP may disclose personally identifiable information concerning a consumer:
 - (a) pursuant to a grand jury subpoena;
 - (b) to an investigative or law enforcement officer while acting as authorized by law;
 - (c) pursuant to a court order in a civil proceeding upon a showing of compelling need for the information that cannot be accommodated by other means;
 - (d) to a court in a civil action for conversion commenced by the ISP or in a civil action to enforce collection of unpaid subscription fees or purchase amounts, and then only to the extent necessary to establish the fact of the subscription delinquency or purchase agreement, and with appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure;
- 29 (e) to the consumer who is the subject of the information, upon writ-30 ten or electronic request and upon payment of a fee not to exceed the 31 actual cost of retrieving the information;
- 32 (f) pursuant to subpoena, including an administrative subpoena, issued
 33 under authority of a law of this state or another state or the United
 34 States;
 - (g) another ISP for purposes of reporting or preventing violations of the publish acceptable use policy or consumer service agreement of the ISP; except that the recipient may further disclose the personally identifiable information only as provided by this chapter;
 - (h) any person with the authorization of the consumer; or
 - (i) as required by this subdivision.
- 41 4. (a) The ISP shall obtain the consumer's authorization of the
 42 disclosure of personally identifiable information in writing or by elec-
 43 tronic means.
- 44 (b) The request for authorization must reasonably describe the types
 45 of persons to whom personally identifiable information may be disclosed
 46 and the anticipated uses of the information.
- 47 (c) In order for an authorization to be effective, a contract between 48 an ISP and the consumer must state that the authorization will be 49 obtained by an affirmative act of the consumer.
 - (d) The provision in the contract must be conspicuous.
- (e) Authorization shall be obtained in a manner consistent with guidelines issued by representatives of the ISP or online industries, or in any other manner reasonably designed to comply with this section.
- 5. The ISP shall take all reasonable and necessary steps to maintain the security and privacy of a consumer's personally identifiable information.

S. 5603--A

6. A consumer who prevails or substantially prevails in an action brought under this section is entitled to the greater of five hundred dollars or actual damages. Costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney fees may be awarded to a party awarded damages for a violation of this section. The damages available under this section are exempted from any mandatory arbitration clauses that may exist in the contract between the ISP and the consumer. In an action under this section, it is a defense that the defendant has established and implemented reasonable practices and procedures to prevent violations of this section.

- 10 7. This section does not limit any greater protection of the privacy 11 of information under other law, except that:
- 12 (a) nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the authority
 13 under other state or federal law of law enforcement to obtain informa-
 14 tion; and
- 15 (b) if federal law is enacted that regulates the release of personally
 16 identifiable information by ISPs but does not preempt state law on the
 17 subject, state law prevails.
- 18 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 19 have become a law.
